Laurie, These ten days in Hawaii scared me before I got here. Now I can say that I was more transformed in these ten days than in any other ten days of my life. My wife who went on a previous Hawaii trip told me that you are a gift and she was right. You are a true gift. Thank you.

John

Laurie:

Thank you for the session. It was really helpful and built on what I have been learning here in Hawaii in acceleration. It helped to fill in some gaps that I was feeling anxious or unsure about. It reinforced some things. The theme was right on. Thank you also for the sliding scale during this challenging economic time. I was able to apply the lesson with a glimpse of finding the contentment in times that feel good as well as times that feel like a let down. I was able to find that being content is available in both these situations. I really appreciate your help and care. Thank you!

Denise

Thank you for inspiring me to open to life again and again by how you approach life, Laurie.

Dear Lo:

The last two months I've been meaning to tell you how incredibly impressed I've been with your website, your business plan, your writings, the blurbs from people you've impacted, etc...

(I wish I had.)

I think that's what amazes me the most about you. No matter what has happened in the last 45 years, you, above anyone else I have ever known, has figured out how to hold true to who you are (on the absolute deepest level), how to embrace who you are (on the absolute deepest level), and how to use, always, that for the betterment of people, humanity, etc... (on the absolute deepest level).

Whenever we connect, I'm able to look inside myself much more readily, willingly and longingly and, in fact, lovingly, if that makes sense.

You are the best, and I am so grateful that you're my sister and friend.

I love you (on the absolute deepest level).

Love,

KMo

Dear Dr. Laurie...

I just wanted to take this opportunity to send my heartfelt gratitude for who you are and all you do. Sharing all that you are experiencing re-affirms to so many the unlimited possibilities we each possess, along with the miracles we are co-creating through this unprecedented time in our human evolution. You are a bright, shining example of the unconditional, pure essence of love, ever expanding in the hearts of humanity and all there is.

Hi Laurie

My husband and I explored your site after we saw you. There is so much to see.

What a diverse set of skills, experiences and offerings you have, yet they are somehow all connected. You really come across with so much love and kindness in the videos. Also, it was easy to feel your sincerity.

Wendy

What you said six months ago turned out to be true. You can feel what's going on. I look at you and can tell you get who I am and who my partner is. Your predictions about others was true.

-Ron, Marketing

My husband and I want to thank you for your caring spirit, sensitivity, your beautiful calls and your messages from our cat.

-Dorothy, Consulting Services

I was skeptic about whether or not it would be true. It was definitely true. She spoke to my horse and it was incredible for me. She has a very special gift.

-Heather, Horseback riding Instructor

My life with my dog has been permanently changed since you worked with him and my heart has opened more.

Herby

May I share with you the Unconditional Love and Joy that is Dr. Laurie Moore....?

Being in Laurie's workshop is like stepping into the future. It is a glimpse into the new world as it exists in joy and love. Laurie created a space that encouraged us all to act from a place of authenticity and love. This is not to say that more negative emotions did not arise. In fact, we worked hard to surface those hidden feelings and then they were handled like a passing cloud in a beautiful blue sky. We watched as they changed shape or disappeared leaving us free to be who we were intended to be.

Overriding the entire time was an uncontainable sense of joy and delight. Every moment, whether Satsang, swimming with the dolphins, or just sharing time with others, was greeted with great happiness. This joy continues to influence my life. There was a certain shift in me that occurred during this time. My willingness to be a victim has significantly lessened. I seek and find more joy by acknowledging the full range of emotions that come into my life. I now believe that we were meant to be experience love here on earth and that the Source has sent us many human, spirit, animal and nature guides to help us. I am better able to access this help.

My relationship with my husband has benefited tremendously.

Laurie is the most genuinely joyful, unpretentious, openhearted person I have ever met. She is willing to do her own work as it arises and holds each person as capable of connecting to Source and all the manifestation of Source on this earth. Allowing me to spend the money to attend her workshop was one of the most precious gifts I have given myself. She has something important to share and through her books, her workshops and her material she invites us all in to join her in this great joy. I am so grateful for what she has offered me and so glad that I accepted.

Helen Lang, Consultant

Laurie taught me that I can create any miracle and can return to love in any situation. Thank you Thank you. Thank you. I hit the jackpot and found a man with whom I have more fun and joy then ever. Jeri Passaro, Property Manager

My life changed for evermore after Dr. Laurie Moore's seminar. I am grateful for life each day and each moment and I am now able to do my dream job!

-Christina Basor, Mother and Chef

I have been an avid supporter and contributor to the Miracle Ground since meeting Dr. Laurie in early 2007. The space it creates is truly miraculous, allowing people to release the burdens of the past and embrace the high vibrations of love and light, thus anchoring the shared dream of a new Golden Age of Infinite Abundance, Eternal Peace, and Limitless joyous Bliss. Dr. Laurie always knows exactly what each person needs!

She made space for me to be more of who I am and express this more than I have ever experienced with any other teacher.

-Bradford Tilden, Composer in Resonance Conductor of Healing Energy

What I desired was unnamable and deep inside. Dr. Laurie was relentless. I even became angry temporarily but she kept pushing me until I popped into a state of enlightenment. Unconditional presence.. joy,..here ...now of which I was source.

Julie Zack, Massage Therapist (in the middle with Dr. Laurie's Big Island Satsang Seminar)

Dearest Laurie, I deeply appreciate our connection. I am getting the most value from just being with you- while you are being exactly who you are- in your journey -- it is a great and rare gift. Your presence and attention is more than enough to gently remind me of who I really am and open windows of possibility. I have moved places that were on hold and returned to a place of awakening and movement with myself, relationships and business.

Meetings with Laurie, and the group she brings together, give me the tools to transform my life. The power of intention as a tool to spearhead change has been one of her greatest gifts to me. Using love as a dynamic force with which to meet other beings is another of her gifts which I am using to broaden my personal family.

Richard S., Ceramic Sculptor, Nurse, Father of six

Working with Laurie helped me to see the gift in every situation. Her love, laughter and wisdom are an inspiration. She acknowledges every single person for what they share and you can watch everyone light up when she does this.

Jeri P., Apartment Manager, mother of 3

Laurie has helped me to get more comfortable expressing my feelings. The Hawaii trip allowed me to truly feel the energies of the dolphins Even now! I can call this energy and utilize it in the healing work I do.

Connie C, Reconnections Healer, mother of 4

Laurie has taught me that I can create whatever I choose by developing clear intentions for my life. She has also used techniques that have helped me move past fears that were unproductive and kept me stuck. Her love and acceptance have helped me love and accept myself more.

Julie A., Mortgage loans

Laurie is an incredible facilitator. My work with her has been life-transforming. I am experiencing more joy in my life through working with her, especially after the Hawaii trip. I have been more in the flow.

Henry S., computer engineer, astrologer, parent and grandparent

My time with Laurie has been transforming. My ability to manifest joy is a new experience...so awesome.

Tani P, Healer, Mother of 4

To Laurie: I just want to say I like you.

Bob, Carpenter & Painter

I had an amazing experience with Dr. Laurie's Dolphin seminar. I can't put it into words but I definitely feel different after swimming with the dolphins.

Caitlin P.

I'm too exuberant for my American society. Laurie sees me as surrounded by beings who like to be near me. I relax and breathe in my nature.

Joya Winwood

Director of MotherSong, Performance Arts and Music teacher for youth, Mother

I've known Laurie for years and since I have been working more closely with her this year my life is becoming more fun. I've picked up several things in her workshops that help me in day to day life. When I meet someone with the idea that they like me and are happy to see me (an assignment from a seminar) it always makes the connection better. Also, the gratitude circles she facilitates are great!

Ken Ohme, pianist

She taught me that I have a choice in how I respond to my two year old son who was one and a half at the time I attended her seminar. At her workshop I cried upon realizing this I felt trapped. There was an immediate difference in how my son responded to me when I got home and this has lasted. Instead of wanting to get away from him and feeling rejected by him, we share deep love and desire to be together.

Kristen ,LMFT, hypnotherapist, Banker

This was the vacation of a lifetime. The best vacation ever and I thank Laurie.

Laurie L, court reporter

Laurie is our angel who has helped me to go through many transformations.

Dearest Laurie,

Our time with you and the group was very special for Ed and me...very magic and wonderful. Thank you lots for including us. We had a wonderful time.

Mary

Hay Laurie,

I have used the program I attended to help with building an unconditional relationship with my son who is 4 1/2 years old and with my relationship with his Mom, my missing and grieving of an animal friend that passed away and the missing of a close animal friend who I am not living with at this time.

Dan

Dear Laurie:

Blessings to you for all you do for people! Lynn Rose

Hi Laurie:

I heard through the grape vine that the couples workshop you taught was great!

Patty

Laurie:

It was very good for us to be here today, assisting. We have been in heavy places as a couple and here we feel much lighter.

Kelly

Laurie:

If anyone can manifest a dream it is you and your partner! Consider anything you say you will manifest, already done.

Michael

Dear Laurie:

Thank you for your generosity.

Jane

I was wondering if you have had time to type up the notes from my session about my dog ...I thought it was great . You are very intuitive.

Thanks!

Cathy

Laurie, Wanted to share this with you. While you and Wayne Hoff were doing the clearing long distance for my partner, I was also doing some work too (I am also a healer) , but MOST IMPORTANT my boyfriend was in the middle of an acupuncture treatment. It was his second treatment in his life. He called me right after the treatment to tell me how he experienced this feeling of love that he had never felt before. He said he could hardly describe it in words, but just wanted to stay in that place. He received everyone's assistance.

CS, Skin Care

Laurie,

It's taken a couple of days to settle in with just what happened with your reading and sharing regarding our dog. Thank you for a fascinating experience and insight into some subtle and very healing energy.

Our canine friend seems to be more present as a result. His desire to be in close contact with me and others immeasurable.

I truly appreciate your gift and coming to our home for this purpose.

it sounds like Aug 26 event will be another remarkable evening with Dr. Laurie.-
BH, Chiropractor

I want to let you know that after the workshop I didn't know if the big change I went through would hold. It did! I was unable to forgive my Ex for many years and after the workshop when I saw his picture I was no longer angry or upset. It was resolved.

Grace

Thank you for everything you have done for us. Your voice is so soothing that sometimes I call your message machine just to hear it. Thank you.

Michelle

Laurie, I stopped going to healers and teachers since I found you. With you around I will have no problems left. You teach me how to manifest, release and do this myself. Thank you. I am sending my family members to you.

Lee

I have gotten a lot of value from your workshops over the years but now they are taken to even a greater level. Unconditional Awakening is your best workshop ever!

Hank

Thank you fro marrying us. It touched me to have you there as the minister because you helped us change are problems so that we could marry. Both of us have grown so much with you. Thank you.

Rita

I changed deeply with you. Now when I have a problem in my relationship I know where to turn...to face and transform myself. If I try to blame my partner or come up with an excuse I see a little Laurie Angel on my shoulder saying, come on David, do the work and I do. I take you with me every where. I am so grateful.

David

Thank you so much. I feel so much better. This is so helpful. Thank you for letting me know what my dogs wanted to tell me.
Ben

You helped me to find unconditional joy and to realize how good I have it. This is the perfect relationship for me. Thank you for getting me to find this truth inside me.
Lisa

I'm checking back seven months later to say that I have had a good day every day since I took the intensive. Everything I ever needed was inside me. You facilitated so I could discover this. I'm happy. Thank you. Everyone should take your intensive!
Tina

You haven't heard from me because after I did the intensive my business took off, I quit drinking and I am so much happier and lighter! Thank you.
Beatrice

I wish I could stay at the seminar forever. Thank you. My heart is so full.
Katrina

I find your work to push my edges in a good way. I find you to be consistently true to your values of kindness and love. Thank you.
John

Your channeling session was FUN and you got our animals personalities very accurately.
Dena

You do things that ascended masters do. I can see who you are in your eyes.
Jen

You operate from a very high vibration and integrity!
Leslie

This work has been very valuable to me.
Lily

You make it look so easy. You always know what everyone needs. How do you do it? I got exactly what I came for. Did you learn this in school, Laurie Moore?
Carol

Hi Laurie:

The channeled reading resonated quite accurately. I look forward to experiencing your workshop. Thank you.

Salina

Thank you for agreeing to facilitate this event of love.

Anne

Dear Laurie:

Thank you for another wonderful session. I am feeling so peaceful. My mother will be 80 next April and I found myself thinking about throwing a big party for her. Not sure I'll actually do it, but still, I'm amazed and so grateful to you.

Love, Mindy

Your reading was very accurate. Thank you so much.

Lynn

There are so many things I liked about the reading. The reading contained so many points that were accurate and helped me in a practical way. What I liked best is that you helped me to utilize the channeled information in my real life. I really liked it and benefited. Thanks!

Wayne

It was great, I loved it/them all!! I'll try to listen to the tape daily (at night), and work with the healing consciousness... to make a long story short, i feel that it has helped a lot a lot a lot!

Silvia

Thank you for what you do. Thank you so much. You are a teacher who is real: human. You have affected my life profoundly.

Richard

You are really good at what you do. We are growing so much with you.

Lisa and Randy

Thank you for the reading. Very accurate!!! A sign for me has been the sun and a favorite of my mom's is the hummingbird so you were right about the totems and you were accurate about our dog's personality, feelings and assistance.

THANK YOU VERY, VERY MUCH!

Pattie

Thank you for helping my daughter. She called me after the session and sounded a lot more grounded and calm. She said, Mom, Dr. Laurie understands.

Mary

This works. I have never been into putting people into mentor slots as I like to learn on my own but you are one of the few people I have ever met who I trust as a mentor.

Stan

You keep telling everyone in our group about all the great teachers and Guru's to visit but YOU are our light and teacher. We receive what we need from YOU!
Richard

Before the session I felt hatred for my neighbor and wanted her to move. After the session I felt love in my heart for her.
Stan

What? The dogs bark when anyone comes to the door. Even people they have known for years but when you come they just run to greet you and jump on your lap. I truly trust your psychic abilities.
Sequoia

What you say does resonate with who canine Peanut is.
Jack

My feline friend has not been the same since her time with you. Your feminine touch had a profound effect. She is a happier cat. She was grieving for four years after her canine friend passed away and now she feels happy again. Jonah (bird) loves you very much.
Gina

I feel so relieved. I can be at peace now, I feel so happy, knowing my dog is fine on the other side (ie dog passed) and that he appreciated me so much and that he is thinking about returning in one year reincarnated.
Julie

You're a really good person to talk to: very kind and gentle.
Lee

I was amazed that she had 6 pages of notes about my cats before she met them! The reading helped a lot and gave me joy.
Mira

The channeling helps us to have more understanding of each other (couples' channeling).
Thank you.
Tina

I'm so glad we have this group to come to.
Henry

Thanks to Laurie's channeling I love public speaking and radio speaking which I used to dread. She worked with me in conjunction with 2 birds. When she told me what my guides said I felt deeply acknowledged and appreciated. I also feel very at peace and open to new options in the realm of relationship. I feel that I am validated no matter what I choose. Thank you, Laurie.

- Linda

I couldn't stop binging. In one session with Dr. Moore I realized that I was using food to avoid grieving the loss of nurturance from my ex partner. As soon as the realization came, the need to binge stopped.

-Janet Aguilar, psychologist

It's been life changing. I rediscovered the blissful spirit within me. I connected with my grandmother and let her pain release from my body. The anger I had carried toward my mother subsided and I felt her love in place. I was able to end a very unhealthy relationship that I had been in for six years.

-Dena Levinson, school teacher

We were about to get a divorce but now we're doing great. He's the guy I love. She's the millennium Guru on relationships.

-Penny Browner, school teacher, mother and wife

The other therapists sided with my wife. Dr. Moore valued both of our opinions.
Ralph Gibbs, scientist

I've changed very deeply through my work with Dr. Moore. I am a lot happier because I am a lot less needy. As a result I have a relationship that fulfills me in ways the last one did not.

Roy Sutherland, yoga instructor and engineer

I went to her knowing I was going to commit suicide if it didn't work. I had been in chronic depression and despair for ten years. She was my last hope. A year later I can say that I love living, spend a lot of time in bliss, and am ready to complete therapy with her. She was a completely nonjudgmental witness who accepted me until I was able to accept myself. Even on the very occasional times that I didn't like something she did and told her, she treated both me and herself with complete acceptance and respect.

-Brian Davis, counselor

I like to be around her because she makes me laugh so much! I like to go to her workshops because I feel positive and happy when I go!

-Nancy Hoffman, full time Mom and landlord

I ended a relationship with the wrong guy so that I was able to meet and marry the man of my dreams.

-Nancy Schifano, food service owner

My business flourished within a year of the starting date once I tried her techniques.

-Angela Dougherty, acupuncturist

Money started coming in from everywhere!

-Brandt Barr, astrologer

I was feeling really low. Over the years I lived more and more for my family and less and less for myself. Within two month of seeing Dr. Laurie Moore, I quit a job I didn't like, decided to build my own home, finished designing that home, and I was happy. Now I have my family AND myself.

-Owen Wannan, once office manager about-to-be carpenter

I signed up for the intensive instead of spending a month in a recovery center. Not only did I completely overcome an ongoing drug addiction, but I solved emotional, self esteem, spiritual and family issues that had plagued me for years. Now I can run my life from love in ways I was run by fear before. This was over a year ago and I am still grateful with my problems long behind me. It was worth every penny!

-Marie Rose, Manager

The intensive was the best investment I ever made. What a deal!

Julie

Decades of chocolate binges replaced with joy and a happier life.

-Shelley Steiner, administrative assistant

I'm not anorexic anymore. The hypnotherapy also helped me to relax for the SATs.

-Joy Bodnar, high school student

I changed my life around. After being at everyone else's beckon call for years. I now do the things that I enjoy. I am a much happier man.

- Kenneth Mendelsohn, office manager turned carpenter

In one session I changed problems that had plagued me for my entire adult life (two decades.) I now feel comfortable and able to have an orgasm with a partner. Stef Eisenberg, insurance sales

The problem for me wasn't not knowing how to make money...it was not allowing myself to make money. I was taught that money is bad and people who make it are not good. I wanted to overcome this belief and tried different therapies but never got over the obstacle. The obstacle was emotional because intellectually I have always known that money is fine. The session made me change emotionally. Now I full feel that abundance and wealth are fine!

-Carmella Gonzalez, marketing

Everyone needs a Dr. Laurie Moore!
Sharon

It was incredible, luscious, and pure joy. My power charka filled with light, my root charka alive in a luscious wonderful way for the first time, my throat full of song, my hear feeling delicious, my third eye a beam of bright light. I am more present then ever because Dr. Laurie Moore helped me to go deep within and then bring what was inside me back into outer life!

-Karen Stohlman, mother of two teenagers

People thought I was crazy when my unexpected spiritual emergence began so a friend suggested I go see Dr. Moore. Dr. Laurie Moore made me feel absolutely nothing was wrong with me. We worked together so that I was able to let the inner guidance direct me and wake me into state of new healing abilities.

-Jacob Arlington, office assistant

Two of us who worked with Dr. Laurie Moore offer this feedback: Using art, movement, breath, drama, and writing, we all had a lot of fun and also found that our lives had profoundly changed...because we changed! Therapy can be joyful and still work!

-Autumn Reinhardt, graduate student of psychology and art therapy

-Tina Rosenthal, mediation interviewer

Dr. Laurie Moore is very spontaneous. Every session is different. We never know what to expect but it's always something special. Sometimes fun and sometimes, elegant, she knows just what to do in the moment. She makes it look easy but it obviously requires lots of skill and talent.

-Merdith Monroe, LMFT

-Brenda Hutchinson, Landlord

She makes the voice such a fun and expressive tool! She seems to have no inhibitions which invited me to trust my own voice.

-Don Halprin, Pilates Instructor

Wow!

-Eric Stevenson, Artist and Nurse

Thank you for your gifts of love that have helped to change my life and deepen my relationship with myself.

Ellen

After I went through a profound change about parenting and soul-purposes I went home to find my son had changed also. It was a miracle. I have great respect for this work and the people who come to the events.

Kristen

Hi Laurie,

it was very nice meeting you and participating in the satsang. Both cats are back home!

Many thanks for your wonderful work!

Thank you for an amazing weekend-it was so needed and appreciated!!! Hawaii sounds awesome-if I win the lotto or some other financial miracle shows up-I'll sign right up. At the moment I'm closer to filing for bankruptcy. I do feel the tides turning in a good direction. Poor here is rich when compared to third world countries. Sending love, blessings and appreciation, Julie p.s. I'm praying that a financially rich donor donates to love climate!

Since I was in your presence for the first time at your talk my life changed. I changed deeply. And did you see how happy Nel was when you spoke. I am so glad I met you.!

-Kendra, Feng ShuiArtist

You were great, They loved you! Thanks for coming to talk to us.
Nel, Feng Shui Consultant

Laurie,

My sister, dear sweet Kerry, participated in the recent Santa Cruz Satsang with you. She absolutely loved this, and shared with me about her awakening from fear thoughts (and her cat companion Sheba). Kerry says Dr. Laurie is very beautiful.

Thank you for being there for her (us all) and sharing. Nice!

Take care. Blessed be.
Tauria

Laurie: I ran into a friend who was at your Satsang and absolutely loved it! Elena

What a beautiful spirit you are. I appreciate you being on this planet to help people. I resonate with your beautiful energy. (Gina, hypnotherapist/EMS practitioner)

Oh My Dr. Laurie, That was a phenomenal seminar. Deceptively simple, deceptively quiet. A LOT going on for each of us. As I told you, I appreciate your energies, yours and theirs. I spent the first day in that room swimming in the energy you created and incorporating it into my physical and energetic being. I appreciate how you work with people, direct, thoughtful, supportive AND giving our job back to us, not just giving us the answers.

- Tina

I want to thank you for helping me with changing my fees. Whew! I went in right after we talked, and changed it all on my website once and then switched back .

And I just made the change complete today. Feels great. A little nervous - as I was invisioning my phone ringing off the hook 5 minutes after I made the switch, but - in due time. Have had so many realizations with this process. Thank you, thank you, thank you! And sending SO MUCH LOVE!

- Kristin

I was told by my travel companion that this seminar would change our lives and HE WAS RIGHT!

- Barry, Business Owner and Consultant

We are grateful you are here for us.

- Richard

Dearest Laurie....

What a beautiful and inspirational message to all for this new year ahead!!!
Indeed, the awareness of remembering the LOVE that we are is all that is needed to BE that love. I personally have found so much joy, peace and harmony with my own understanding that LOVE is a state of BEing. I no longer search outside myself for any one thing I thought would fill the empty void I held for so long. Every second, every moment and every breath of my life is now nurtured by my attitude. And my attitude is GRATITUDE!!!!

Thank you for BEing who you are and all that you do for all that there is!!!

With Much Big LOVE,
Cindy Priest-Mulder

Meetings with Laurie, and the group she brings together, give me the tools to transform my life. The power of intention as a tool to spearhead change has been one of her greatest gifts to me. Using love as a dynamic force with which to meet other beings is another of her gifts which I am using to broaden my personal family.

Richard S., Ceramic Sculptor, Nurse, Father of six

Working with Laurie helped me to see the gift in every situation. Her love, laughter and wisdom are an inspiration. She acknowledges every single person for what they share and you can watch everyone light up when she does this.

Jeri P., Apartment Manager, mother of 3

Laurie has helped me to get more comfortable expressing my feelings. The Hawaii trip allowed me to truly feel the energies of the dolphins Even now! I can call this energy and utilize it in the healing work I do.

Connie C, Reconnections Healer, mother of 4

Laurie has taught me that I can create whatever I choose by developing clear intentions for my life. She has also used techniques that have helped me move past fears that were unproductive and kept me stuck. Her love and acceptance have helped me love and accept myself more.

Julie A., Mortgage loans

Laurie is an incredible facilitator. My work with her has been life-transforming. I am experiencing more joy in my life through working with her, especially after the Hawaii trip. I have been more in the flow.

Henry S., computer engineer, astrologer, parent and grandparent

My time with Laurie has been transforming. My ability to manifest joy is a new experience...so awesome.

Tani P, Healer, Mother of 4

To Laurie I just want to say I like you.

Bob, Carpenter & Painter

I had an amazing experience with Dr. Laurie's Dolphin seminar. I can't put it into words but I definitely feel different after swimming with the dolphins.

Caitlin P. student (teenager)

I'm too exuberant for my American society. Laurie sees me as surrounded by beings who like to be near me. I relax and breathe in my nature.

Joya Winwood

Director of MotherSong, Performance Arts and Music teacher for youth, Mother

I've known Laurie for years and since I have been working more closely with her this year my life is becoming more fun. I've picked up several things in her workshops that help me in day to day life. When I meet someone with the idea that they like me and are happy to see me (an assignment from a seminar) it always makes the connection better. Also, the gratitude circles she facilitates are great!

Ken Ohme, pianist

She taught me that I have a choice in how I respond to my two year old son who was one and a half at the time I attended her seminar. At her workshop I cried upon realizing this. I had felt trapped. There was an immediate difference in how my son responded to me when I got home and this has lasted. Instead of wanting to get away from him and feeling rejected by him, we share deep love and desire to be together.

Kristen N, LMFT, hypnotherapist, Banker

This was the vacation of a lifetime. The best vacation ever and I thank Laurie.

Laurie L, court reporter

Laurie is our angel who has helped me to go through many transformations.

I had a wonderful time in Hawaii. Thank you again!
Melinda G, Administration

Thank you. You are a gentle conduit, Laurie.
Robin, Office Manager

Dearest Laurie,
Our time with you and the group was very special for Ed and me...very magic and wonderful. Thank you lots for including us. We had a wonderful time.
Mary

Hay Laurie,
I have used the program I attended to help with building an unconditional relationship with my son who is 4 1/2 years old and with my relationship with his Mom, my missing and grieving of an animal friend that passed away and the missing of a close animal friend who I am not living with at this time.
Dan

Dear Laurie:
Blessings to you for all you do for people!
Lynn Rose

Hi Laurie:
I heard through the grape vine that the couples workshop you taught was great!
Patty

Laurie:
It was very good for us to be here today, assisting. We have been in heavy places as a couple and here we feel much lighter.
Kelly

Dearest Dr. Laurie,

I cannot thank you enough for the incredible experience. I am using your techniques and I feel at peace and joyful more and more of the time. In my meditation class last week we had a laughing fit, reminded me of you and I shared how you had us all laughing. It was very healing. Bonnie had such a wonderful time! Thank you so very much for allowing her to come. I have been thinking a lot about the trips next year. Of course I have lots of things weighing both directions but they really sound too good to pass up. I will keep thinking on it and try to figure it out.

Much much love,
cara

You have the voice of an angel
Anthony

Laurie:
If anyone can manifest a dream it is you and your partner! Consider anything you say you will manifest, already done.

Michael

Dear Laurie:

Thank you for your generosity.

Jane

I was wondering if you have had time to type up the notes from my session about my dog ...I thought it was great . You are very intuitive.

Thanks!

Cathy

Laurie, Wanted to share this with you. While you and Wayne Hoff were doing the clearing long distance for my partner, I was also doing some work too (I am also a healer) , but MOST IMPORTANT my boyfriend was in the middle of an acupuncture treatment. It was his second treatment in his life. He called me right after the treatment to tell me how he experienced this feeling of love that he had never felt before. He said he could hardly describe it in words, but just wanted to stay in that place. He received everyone's assistance.

CS, Skin Care

Laurie,

It's taken a couple of days to settle in with just what happened with your reading and sharing regarding our dog. Thank you for a fascinating experience and insight into some subtle and very healing energy.

Our canine friend seems to be more present as a result. His desire to be in close contact with me and others immeasurable.

I truly appreciate your gift and coming to our home for this purpose.

BH, Chiropractor

I want to let you know that after the workshop I didn't know if the big change I went through would hold. It did! I was unable to forgive my Ex for many years and after the workshop when I saw his picture I was no longer angry or upset. It was resolved.

Grace

Thank you for everything you have done for us. Your voice is so soothing that sometimes I call your message machine just to hear it. Thank you.

Michelle

Laurie, I stopped going to healers and teachers since I found you. With you around I will have no problems left. You teach me how to manifest, release and do this myself. Thank you. I am sending my family members to you.

Lee

I have gotten a lot of value from your workshops over the years but now they are taken to even a greater level. Unconditional Awakening is your best workshop ever!

Hank

Thank you fro marrying us. It touched me to have you there as the minister because you helped us change are problems so that we could marry. Both of us have grown so much with you. Thank you.

Rita

I changed deeply with you. Now when I have a problem in my relationship I know where to turn...to face and transform myself. If I try to blame my partner or come up with an excuse I see a little Laurie Angel on my shoulder saying, come on David, do the wore and I do. I take you with me every where. I am so grateful.

David

Thank you so much. I feel so much better. This is so helpful. Thank you for letting me know what my dogs wanted to tell me.

Ben

You helped me to find unconditional joy and to realize how good I have it. This is the perfect relationship for me. Thank you for getting me to find this truth inside me.

Lisa

I'm checking back seven months later to say that I have had a good day every day since I took the intensive. Everything I ever needed was inside me. You facilitated so I could discover this. I'm happy. Thank you. Everyone should take your intensive!

Tina

You haven't heard from me because after I did the intensive my business took off, I quit drinking and I am so much happier and lighter! Thank you.

Beatrice

I wish I could stay at the seminar forever. Thank you. My heart is so full.

Katrina

Dear Laurie:

It is no nice to hear from you after these many years of 'no see'! Glad you are well and doing great work though your leaning and application in real world. This is so uplifting to realize, again and again, that to transform the unhealthy vibrations into a very positive frequency, we need to radiate from within and say 'thank you'.

You have made me so happy and I thank you for sharing your gifts with many many people from different walks of life. You are a blessing to the world! Keep in touch as we have much more to do while still walking on earth.

With all my love with joy,

Roop

Thank you so much for affirming my sentiments. These are my thoughts exactly and I have conveyed this to my partner.

You are absolutely powerfully gifted beyond belief. You are able to give me what I need at the exactly the right time. I appreciate and thank you for your love and support.

Mahalo~

Calina

I find your work to push my edges in a good way. I find you to be consistently true to your values of kindness and love. Thank you.

John

Your channeling session was FUN and you got our animals personalities very accurately.

Dena

You do things that ascended masters do. I can see who you are in your eyes.

Jen

You operate from a very high vibration and integrity!

Leslie

This work has been very valuable to me.

Lily

You make it look so easy. You always know what everyone needs. How do you do it? I got exactly what I came for. Did you learn this in school, Laurie Moore?

Carol

Hi Laurie:

The channeled reading resonated quite accurately. I look forward to experiencing your workshop. Thank you.

Salina

Thank you for agreeing to facilitate this event of love.

Anne

Dear Laurie:

Thank you for another wonderful session. I am feeling so peaceful. My mother will be 80 next April and I found myself thinking about throwing a big party for her. Not sure I'll actually do it, but still, I'm amazed and so grateful to you.

Love, Mindy

Your reading was very accurate. Thank you so much.

Lynn

There are so many things I liked about the reading. The reading contained so many points that were accurate and helped me in a practical way. What I liked best is that you helped me to utilize the channeled information in my real life. I really liked it and benefited. Thanks!

Wayne

It was great, I loved it/them all!! I'll try to listen to the tape daily (at night), and work with the healing consciousness... to make a long story short, i feel that it has helped a lot a lot a lot!

Silvia

Thank you for what you do. Thank you so much. You are a teacher who is real: human. You have affected my life profoundly.

Richard

You are really good at what you do. We are growing so much with you.

Lisa and Randy

Thank you for the reading. Very accurate!!! A sign for me has been the sun and a favorite of my mom's is the hummingbird so you were right about the totems and you were accurate about our dog's personality, feelings and assistance.

THANK YOU VERY, VERY MUCH!

Pattie

Thank you for helping my daughter. She called me after the session and sounded a lot more grounded and calm. She said, Mom, Dr. Laurie understands.

Mary

This retreat Dr. Laurie helped me to find what is eternal and always changing. She gently nudged me in all ways she could to go deeper than my entertainment, distraction- apparatus and find myself in a whole new way. I found what is here and now, and realized that much of what I used to pay attention to is yesterday's news!

Kathryn Conley

Dr. Laurie has a huge heart and I have fun at her Satsangs. She makes it joyful and playful. I found my own authority for my own wisdom and self.

Mara Sussman

Laurie:

Thank you for being so authentic and showing us how human and real you are. You openly share your human experience in a way that gives us all permission to be human.

Rebecca was my mirror and I had to see in her what I had to work out in myself.
Birgit

Laurie: Thank you for the endless love. You are always laughing and what I like so much is that throughout the Satsangs I hear your laugh!
Rachel

Rachel, Thank you for the endless love. Your tears opened my heart to God, Goddess, Buddha, Allah, Quan Yin, Quetzalcoatl, Magalene, Jesus, Higher Power, Infinite Love. Your tears cried for us all. ~Laurie

I don't want to leave this Satsang! I love you all.
Rebecca

After my work with Laurie, I found my dream man!
Jeri Passaro

My challenging relationship with my child became a dream relationship.
Kristen Nemzer

I quit a job I did not enjoy and created my dream job successfully. In addition, I altered relationships with family and friends to new way of fulfillment and unconditional love.
Richard Smith

My migraines went away!
Keri Mohr

I found what I had looked for in every spiritual teaching and spiritual teacher for decades. Dr. Laurie made enlightenment possible for everyone.
Susan Levi

Thank you, Laurie. You change my relationship with my Dog and I significantly but did more than that. You took me to a deeper place of love in my heart.
Dr. Herby Bell

Your work is so humane and full of love. I experienced awakening to my higher self for the first time.

Dr. Maryam Larki

Some of my most favorite and happiest times in life have been at Dr. Laurie Moore's seminars!
Ken Ohme

This works. I have never been into putting people into mentor slots as I like to learn on my own but you are one of the few people I have ever met who I trust as a mentor.
Stan

You keep telling everyone in our group about all the great teachers and Guru's to visit but YOU are our light and teacher. We receive what we need from YOU!
Richard

Before the session I felt hatred for my neighbor and wanted her to move. After the session I felt love in my heart for her.

Stan

Laurie:

You were so trusting at the satsang in Hawaii. You let two men offer you a healing even though you were the teacher. A personal issue for you was exposed and you trusted the group.

Mara

What? The dogs bark when anyone comes to the door. Even people they have known for years but when you come they just run to greet you and jump on your lap. I truly trust your psychic abilities.

Sequoia

Thank Laurie, for this exquisite share and inclusion in you, of you, and of me and us and all of it...

Though words do not come close to describing this, you create an entrance for me into this beingness with these meager words anyway! Happy it is. The light and sweetness comes into and through as I read it...

Thank you

Lesley

Thank you so much!

You have made an extraordinary difference in my life over the years!

I appreciate all you do!

Stef

What you say does resonate with who canine Peanut is.

Jack

My feline friend has not been the same since her time with you. Your feminine touch had a profound effect. She is a happier cat. She was grieving for four years after her canine friend passed away and now she feels happy again. Jonah (bird) loves you very much.

didn't know why I began to eat and eat and could not stop. I went to Dr. Laurie Moore. The first session I got in touch with the grief I was hiding from myself and had a good cry...and then the urge to over eat subsided. I am a counselor who helps others so I was surprised that I couldn't figure it out myself. Dr. Laurie Moore assured me that we all need support.
Brenda

My Mom was addicted to pain killers and I felt deeply upset so I spoke to Dr. Laurie. She was supportive, non judgmental and very informative. My Mom agreed to seek help with Dr. Laurie herself and our entire family benefited.
Spring

I was addicted to pain killers. Dr. Laurie helped me to find my power instead and my self esteem grew. Many years have passed since my intensive work with Dr. Laurie and I have not gone back nor felt the urge. Self esteem feels great.
Melissa

I am addressing embarrassment and low self esteem that has been pushed to the surface due to my husband's pornography and prostitute addiction. Dr. Laurie has been supportive, non judgmental and amazing in helping me open doors of great love, peace and talent within myself. I thought I was alone and have come to find out that porn and prostitute addiction is now more ramped than alcoholism, effecting millions of people. Thanks to Dr. Laurie helping me, I wish to help other woman who's partner's have this disease.
Debbie

My partner and I judged each other and fought over each others' imperfections. Our addictions were to righteousness and arguing. Dr. Laurie helped us to laugh and playfully find new ways to help, support and enjoy each other.
Robert and Leslie

My sister was on heroin for years. When she found Dr. Moore, she thought Dr. Moore was the best thing she had ever found, forgiving, accepting, non judgmental. But we saw another side to Dr. Moore that saved my sisters life. Dr. Moore told my sister that she was using her therapist visits (i.e. with Dr. Moore) as an addiction instead of to heal and the game was up After a few months Dr. Moore said to her, Check into full time rehab or don't come back. We had wanted my sister to go to rehab for years and Dr. Moore knew just when and how to confront her. I truly believe Dr. Moore's intuitive timing and approach saved my sister's life. She was close to dying from drugs until they met. She knew Dr. Moore did this out of tough love and care.
Brian

I was addicted to my mis-assumptions and judgments about others. My mind told me all kinds of stories about my being better than others. Dr. Laurie helped me to see the light and find my love for all people to be open and embracing. My friend and family relationships have deepened and improved significantly.

Ben *

Gina

I feel so relieved. I can be at peace now, I feel so happy, knowing my dog is fine on the other side (ie dog passed) and that he appreciated me so much and that he is thinking about returning in one year reincarnated.

Julie

Thank you Jessie Justin Joy for your love!

Maryam

Thank you Jessie Justin Joy for your presence. I feel you.

Erin

Thank you Baba Jessie!

Ken

On March 3rd of last year, I won a reading with Dr. Laurie Moore. She communicated with my three animals who died from 2001-2006. I told her I would write about it and share my experience with others, which I did share my experience and brought people to tears. Dr. Moore changed my life regarding my babies who have passed on.

I think she is truly gifted and can tell the difference between an animal communicator who really does this and one who doesn't. She is truly a gift from God and I will always appreciate what she did for me. I would love to know more about my babies. I have two here at home.

Did Dr. Moore ever get a response from the PBS channel here in Louisville, Kentucky? I Maybe I can try to contact someone or send information to them on Dr. Moore? Do you have information I can send to them. I think she is truly gifted and wonderful. What a beautiful life she leads.

Thank you.

Many blessing and love to you.

Christy Mattingly

You're a really good person to talk to: very kind and gentle.

Dear Laurie
this message sure speaks for me...thanks! Mostly I am trying to remember that when I feel bummed about something or someone that it is me making that event the bummer...some aspect of my assumed identity feeling challenged; I am learning to thank these events for being such an opportunity to keep cleaning my stuff up love you!
Rich

I'm so glad we have this group to come to.
Henry

Thanks to Laurie's channeling I love public speaking and radio speaking which I used to dread. She worked with me in conjunction with 2 birds. When she told me what my guides said I felt deeply acknowledged and appreciated. I also feel very at peace and open to new options in the realm of relationship. I feel that I am validated no matter what I choose. Thank you, Laurie.

- Linda

I couldn't stop binging. In one session with Dr. Moore I realized that I was using food to avoid grieving the loss of nurturance from my ex partner. As soon as the realization came, the need to binge stopped.

-Janet Aguilar, psychologist

It's been life changing. I rediscovered the blissful spirit within me. I connected with my grandmother and let her pain release from my body. The anger I had carried toward my mother subsided and I felt her love in place. I was able to end a very unhealthy relationship that I had been in for six years.

-Dena Levinson, school teacher

We were about to get a divorce but now we're doing great. He's the guy I love. She's the millennium Guru on relationships.

Dr Laurie

I am physically ill, but I did not want to wait any longer to let you know of a transformation that is taking place in me that I know you are helping me with. I am so full of JOY! And I am hearing messages. Some good, some bad. From my animal friends departed. But even the 'sad' messages are filling me with joy. It is as if the door were suddenly unlocked after all this time of people saying you only have to choose to be happy.

And me always sort of being the cynic, yea right. But now it seems so simple somehow! And I haven't even started on my 'formal' education yet! Ha! My head and eyes still hurt too bad. I've mostly been resting, sleeping, dreaming. Maybe that is where the message is getting through to me from. The dream world. But it is working, wherever it is coming from.

Thank you! I feel so free now! Free at last! It sounds so silly, so simple. But I really feel it for the first time. And I know it is real, because I AM still physically ill! Yet I feel so joyous anyway! My money situation is still the same 'mess', my flu or whatever it is is still hanging on, but I am so full of joy nevertheless. A particular relative is still the black hole. And she is the worst of it by far, as she has been for quite some time. But I really feel the answer to that dilemma is answered as well! I am joyful nonetheless.

Thank you so much for opening my heart. Even though my throat may still be choked with flu, I am joyful nonetheless. I am freeing myself of that blockage also. It looked as though my court case was going badly when I first arrived home, but I chose to forgive and be joyful anyway, and, surprise! It has taken a better turn! But it is OK, even if it doesn't 'go my way' I will be OK with it anyway.

Joyfully, Sandra
(Name changed for confidentiality)

The other therapists sided with my wife. Dr. Moore valued both of our opinions.
Ralph Gibbs, scientist

I've changed very deeply through my work with Dr. Moore. I am a lot happier because I am a lot less needy. As a result I have a relationship that fulfills me in ways the last one did not.
Roy Sutherland, yoga instructor and engineer

I went to her knowing I was going to commit suicide if it didn't work. I had been in chronic depression and despair for ten years. She was my last hope. A year later I can say that I love living, spend a lot of time in bliss, and am ready to complete therapy with her. She was a completely nonjudgmental witness who accepted me until I was able to accept myself. Even on the very occasional times that I didn't like something she did and told her, she treated both me and herself with complete acceptance and respect.
-Brian Davis, counselor

I like to be around her because she makes me laugh so much! I like to go to her workshops because I feel positive and happy when I go!
Jeri Pissaro, full time Mom and landlord

I ended a relationship with the wrong guy so that I was able to meet and marry the man of my dreams.
-Nancy Schifano, food service owner

My business flourished within a year of the starting date once I tried her techniques.
-Angela Dougherty, acupuncturist

I was feeling really low. Over the years I lived more and more for my family and less and less for myself. Within two month of seeing Dr. Laurie Moore, I quit a job I didn't like, decided to build my own home, finished designing that home, and I was happy. Now I have my family AND myself.
-Owen Wannan, once office manager about-to-be carpenter

I signed up for the intensive instead of spending a month in a recovery center. Not only did I completely overcome an ongoing drug addiction, but I solved emotional, self esteem, spiritual and family issues that had plagued me for years. Now I can run my life from love in ways I was run by fear before. This was over a year ago and I am still grateful with my problems long behind me. It was worth every penny!

-Marie Rose, Manager

The intensive was the best investment I ever made. What a deal!

Julie

Decades of chocolate binges replaced with joy and a happier life.

-Shelley Steiner, administrative assistant

I'm not anorexic anymore. The hypnotherapy also helped me to relax for the SATs.

-Joy Bodnar, high school student

I changed my life around. After being at everyone else's beckon call for years. I now do the things that I enjoy. I am a much happier man.

- Kenneth Mendelssohn, office manager turned carpenter

In one session I changed problems that had plagued me for my entire adult life (two decades.) I now feel comfortable and able to have an orgasm with a partner.

Stef Eisenberg, insurance sales

The problem for me wasn't not knowing how to make money...it was not allowing myself to make money. I was taught that money is bad and people who make it are not good. I wanted to overcome this belief and tried different therapies but never got over the obstacle. The obstacle was emotional because intellectually I have always known that money is fine. The session made me change emotionally. Now I full feel that abundance and wealth are fine!

-Carmella Gonzalez, marketing

Everyone needs a Dr. Laurie Moore!

Sharon

It was incredible, luscious, and pure joy. My power chakra filled with light, my root chakra alive in a luscious wonderful way for the first time, my throat full of song, my hear feeling delicious, my third eye a beam of bright light. I am more present then ever because Dr. Laurie Moore helped me to go deep within and then bring what was inside me back into outer life!

-Karen Stohlman, mother of two teenagers

People thought I was crazy when my unexpected spiritual emergence began so a friend suggested I go see Dr. Moore. Dr. Laurie Moore made me feel absolutely nothing was wrong with me. We worked together so that I was able to let the inner guidance direct me and wake me into state of new healing abilities.

-Jacob Arlington, office assistant

Two of us who worked with Dr. Laurie Moore offer this feedback: Using art, movement, breath, drama, and writing, we all had a lot of fun and also found that our lives had profoundly changed...because we changed! Therapy can be joyful and still work!

-Autumn Reinhardt, graduate student of psychology and art therapy

-Tina Rosenthal, mediation interviewer

Dr. Laurie Moore is very spontaneous. Every session is different. We never know what to expect but it's always something special. Sometimes fun and sometimes, elegant, she knows just what to do in the moment. She makes it look easy but it obviously requires lots of skill and talent.

-Merdith Monroe, LMFT

-Brenda Hutchinson, Landlord

She makes the voice such a fun and expressive tool! She seems to have no inhibitions which invited me to trust my own voice.

-Don Halprin, Pilates Instructor

Wow!

-Eric Stevenson, Artist and Nurse

Thank you for your gifts of love that have helped to change my life and deepen my relationship with myself.

Ellen

After I went through a profound change about parenting and soul-purposes I went home to find my son had changed also. It was a miracle. I have great respect for this work and the people who come to the events.

Dearest Laurie; I wanted to say Thank You! so much for the reading yesterday. You have helped Abbey and Princess and me to reach a more peaceful, higher, cleaner place. We ALL thank you for the beautiful work you do.

When I came this morning to feed Princess she met me and talked to me the whole way to her feed bowl. I stood near her, and she actually came up and brushed against my pant leg. This is a big step for us, as she has never done anything like that before, aside from the occasional playful and gentle swipe at my feet when I reach for her bowl. I could hardly believe it. I told her how wonderful that was, and she looked up at me, right into my eyes, and meowed gently. I will meet with her again today in the afternoon, and every day that I can.

What more can I say? Every contact with you brings magic into our lives. Thank you again.

Love and Peace,
Connie, Abbey (reincarnated canine) and Princess (feline)

First I want to say how much I enjoyed and got out of both seminars this weekend. Laurie is so personable, caring and knowledgeable. She did a great job of guiding and helping so many people. Thanks for the hard work, dedication and generosity of Laurie and all you folks who assist her .

Thanks so much. I am so glad I have you to speak with about my animal friends. I really thank you for your service. Connie

This is an unexpected gift! Wow! Beautiful. Sign me up for all your programs!

I can't wait to go back to work to be in LOVE with EVERONE!
Christina

I learned a lot from you and your seminar. I realized I can think I am helping someone when in fact I am making them wrong, thinking they need to be the way I wish. You are quite masterful in the way you conduct a workshop, and especially in the way you lead people through processes accepting them for wherever they are and letting the process lead them to wherever it is they go. I loved watching how you had a giant bag of trips that you kept using and pulling out as each person and situation presented itself.
Randy

Laurie-

What a lovely article. I enjoyed reading it very much. You are such a talented creature

Thanks for including me in your mailing list and for writing and sharing your wonderful insights.

Unconditional Awakening, Buddhism & Religions is a great article! Thank you,

Hi Laurie- Loreeeee!

I was very happy to be invited to your workshop and to see you doing your work. Everyone there seemed so happy, involved and appreciative. I felt such love for you and I also felt proud. You work soooo hard and go through soooo much, it was absolutely wonderful to see you running a successful workshop and enjoying yourself. I love how you always have positive things to say about everyone. Thank you for inviting me. (I was a little disappointed to miss the videos, but I wasn't upset.)

love & moore love,
Jeri-Jereeeee!

Hi Laurie.

I totally believe in you. Better get some tax shelters in place for your great success with the upcoming Home Study Kit for Money, Love, Miracles, Enlightenment and Animal communication!

Mike

Dear Laurie: I can do that! I hold you in my heart with love and thank you for the gifts of joy and insight you have already given me. Thank you for the affirmation of my spirit.

Love, Christina

You are a tremendously loving person. Thank you for all you do in this world.
Donna

Hi Laurie,

Holy Guacamole! : ) Yippee! and Congrats...

Your day long Miracles program was superb. I am proud to say that I was on a panel with a dog. ; ) That was a highlight for me.

Your comedy stuff on the video was very funny, where you wore all those wigs and spoofed being clients.

I learned a lot from you and your workshop this past Saturday. For example, in my desire to help people get it right when it comes to forming intentions, I hadn't realized that when people state their positive intention then follow it up by stating some sort of a negative commentary that (in my mind) weakens their intention, that when I correct them (believing I am being helpful), in actuality, I have made them wrong. That never occurred to me.

You are quite masterful in the way that you conduct a workshop, and especially in the way that you lead people through processes, accepting them for wherever they are, and letting the process lead them to wherever it is they go. I loved watching how you had this giant bag of tricks that you kept pulling out and using as each person and situation presented itself. You follow the energy masterfully, and it was truly a delight to be part of the entire process.

I would love to attend future workshops of yours. If you do something like this again, or the animal communication one that I missed, I would love to be a part of it. My partner would too.

There's a beautiful male towhee bird, absolutely stunning, that is trying to get into my bedroom window. Day after day for the past three weeks now, he is singing, and perching on the fence by my bed, and jumping onto the window ledge (god knows how he is able to cling to such a small thing), and he bops himself over and over and over again on the window, like he's trying to climb it and get in.

I keep asking him for his message, because it sure looks like he wants to deliver one, but I have not received it yet. Every time I try to take a picture of him he flies away! Sometimes he struts on the fence with his wings outspread. At first, I thought he was doing his little Spring dance for a female. But I'm really not sure because he is so persistent about trying to get in.

Then this morning, there was a hummingbird, (not a ruby-throated one, but an orangey-brown one, speckled.) I'd never seen one like that. He came to my office window and stared at me and glided along the entire width of the window, like he was trying to get in!!!

So, now there are two birdies who are trying to get my attention big time.

I don't know what the message is, but I sure am looking forward to receiving it!

: ) Love, Randy

I had a lot of questions but instead of asking you I saved them for myself. This is what you taught me. Marti, Artist

Oh My Dr. Laurie,
That was a phenomenal seminar.
Deceptively simple, deceptively quiet.
A LOT going on for each of us.
As I told you, I appreciate your energies, yours and theirs.
I spent the first day in that room swimming in the energy you created and incorporating it into my physical and energetic being.
I appreciate how you work with people, direct, thoughtful, supportive AND giving our job back to us, not just giving us the answers.
In fact, the whole idea that we have the answers inside of us, was beautifully modeled throughout the weekend.
The depth of the two days with you was,,,,,,is,,, singingly, delightfully, cell-level transformative.
I hope you don't mind getting my thoughts on this. Appreciation abounds.
A request:
I would love to know more about what you did to set the room, invoke the archangels bring in help, etc. in a bit more detail. Could you let me know how you did what you did to create that enveloping and nurturing energy field, either in a phone conversation or an email? It was palpable and I would love to know how to do that!
Also, the second day, with the energies different, could you please tell me what was different?
How you did what you did.
It felt more ( red ? ) more grounded, a different tone, different colors, ....different intensity.
Again, it was breathed into my being.
I came home different.
voice lower, deeply inwardly calmer, thinking clearer and sweeter.
(Trying to put words to the sensations and the after-effects is tricky, know that words here are not quite adequate)
(Especially today, as, I'm a little tired!!)

Many many thanks, from both Ted and I.
much love
Tina

Laurie, I had such a playful fun time at the seminar . It was light. So when I got home and realized the profound change I had gone through I was surprised!
Shana

Thank you, thank you! And by the way, the 5-day trip was absolutely perfect for me in many, many ways. So many lessons from so many beings in so many forms all in perfection. The island spoke to me very deeply. Divine Mother spoke to me very directly in my rustic cabana/spider/centipede room. I felt so thoroughly well there. It was a tonic just to breathe the air. I think I realize now that the ring of fire vision I saw when Mother was sending communication was the birth of the island itself. So awesome. Thank you for making this experience available and for allowing all that is to be in all of its perfection.
Mary Ann

Dear Laurie,
Loved your post on the moths & butterflies.
People are so worried about the decrease in the bee population but they don't realize that all sorts of insects and animals provide us similar services (free of charge)
I have been feeding yellow jackets whenever I ate outside for years. I just put a small portion of my serving on this side of my plate for them.
The way to keep this earth healthy and in turn to keep humans healthy is through the simple cultures realize this and provide for nature around them. Somehow in all our smarts our cultures have seemed to lose this connection.
Thank you for reminding us again.
Pame

Laurie
Thank you for reminding us of oneness with all.
Love and light
Brinton

Regarding the moths:
Bravo!!!

Dear Laurie,
Thank you so much for your thoughts on the moths. I am reminded again of how grateful I am to have you on our side -- me and the animals, that is. :-)) I do identify so strongly sometimes with the animals that I forget that I am human and not animal myself. I am putting out my apple now.
Love to you!

Karen

Hi Dr. Laurie. You worked with me a year ago and I never came back because I got EVERYTHING I needed! My life is completely changed forever.

Thank You!

Laurie, Hand gliding teacher

I don't plan to have the art of miracle manifestation and unconditional awakening into joy, bliss, union, grace, and love fizzle! I did not create it but I found it while alive on this fabulous planet so I wish to share with those who will share with others!

The good news is...I benefit as much as everyone else. I typically receive emails, calls and statements like these:

I am so happy you are here. Thank you. Thank you.

Dr. Laurie I have you written down in my notes...because you told me I was good at loving and this stuck with me...that you. The work we did really worked and stayed. Jean

Dear, Gentle Laurie,

Thanks for this...

I read your messages and went and sat outside and tears started to well up in my eyes. I felt a crushing sadness along with the urge to wail. The wonderful dog (H_____) who lives with me now came up and nuzzled me and sat with me for a bit. I felt as deeply sad as I did last year when my dog-friend of 8 years died.

I wanted to hold this dog, and play with it and let it know that there are people here who love it and want it to have a good life.

In the evening Hogarth and I went for our usual walk and I tried to imagine this other dog coming with us, running and playing and feeling loved and wanted. I was still feeling tremendously sad and would frequently let out audible sighs.

The sadness persisted, then about 10pm or so last night it felt like it lifted - kind of suddenly. I hope I was able to help the dog transition by holding the sadness. If you get any messages from this being, I'd love to hear what (s)he has to say.

Thank You for all your wonderful gifts and for making such a positive change in the world. I see you radiating light and love...

Gandhi said Be the change you wish to see in the world and it's wonderful to see someone who does it.

with love and gratitude,

Hi

I just wanted you to know how much I got out of the workshop Sept 9 & 10.

It was so incredible.

I am so excited about what I learned.

I really enjoyed the people that were there also. I never could open up to a crowd and I sure did that weekend.

You are really a special person. Thank you so much for allowing us to take this incredible workshop with you.

Terri

Good Morning Dr. Moore,

I just wanted to take a few moments to thank you for the workshop last weekend and acknowledge and appreciate your generosity and gifts.

I found the workshop to be an amazing experience! You truly come from the heart and it is so apparent as you gently worked with each person. I will use the tools you provided as I continue to work on opening my own heart.

I do plan to work with you sometime in the future as my circumstances allow.

I wanted to acknowledge the wonderful people who volunteered as helpers.

They were open, kind and loving and helped create a safe space for all of us to open up. I know you expressed concern about the hotel, but it was very comfortable and the beds were great. I like that it was on the wetlands and we could walk out and be with the wildlife and enjoy nature on our lunch time.

I am a Reiki Master/teacher and energy worker, and I would like to offer you sessions in exchange for your wonderful gift of the scholarship.

Molly

I was told by my travel companion that this seminar would change our lives and HE WAS RIGHT!

Barry, Business Owner and Consultant

Thank you for choosing the people instead of going away to be all alone with such a refined high vibration. You could be with dolphins or fairies all day but you choose us Dr. Laurie.

I liked this article you wrote: Emotions are Expressions of Life~Yes!. Good on you, Laurie! I laughed at the messages before and after the beep - good application!

With great love for your tenderness, sweetness, grace, and all of it!

Penelope Smith

Thank you so much you did an outstanding job with your seminars. Your generosity is very wonderful to behold. You have taken the lessons of spirituality that all great teachers aspire to impart and refined them down to this basics. You have done this in a way that makes it accessible to understand and really utilize. . I heard all these spiritual messages for decades but really GOT them from you. Now I can implement them into my life each day and it's up to me. I would like to offer you some landscaping as a gift.
Theresa

Your message kept me going and going. I listened over and over. You brought me so much joy. Thank you.

I gave up a mental illness diagnosis for peace and love. Weeks later, this still lasts. (Dr. Laurie adds I'll check back with her in a few months and a year etc. I am SURE it will last!)
KG

Hi Dr Laurie, wade and I would like to thank you for the beautiful reading you did for us on Turbo who passed on. We know he is always with us.
With lots of love
Jody and Wade

Laurie,

It is such a lesson of beauty with you and through you, that we can communicate honestly and openly. I've always loved that about our correspondence. :) Thank you for sharing your feelings about your work with is, and I'm excited to see how your work has evolved within this new seminar. I'm learning from this as well, because my initial instinct with people is to offer advice, even if from the heart, sometimes even when not invited to do so. I really love the practice of inviting people to ask themselves what their heart tells them is true. Thanks for the inspiration to do so!

Erin (Cook for Hawaii Satsang Seminars with Dr. Laurie)

Hello laurie
for sure I received and am still receiving many gifts from our time together ....those gifts only a part of the overflowing basket full of gifts received in standing by you and following you and upholding you for many years!!!!thank you millions of times and buckets of gratitude!!!!

Rich (Dr. Laurie's main assistant from 2000-2008)

Dear Laurie,

This morning, as I do each morning, I was smelling the CLARE-ity oil you made for me and realized I have not told you how much it means to me. I have never smelled anything more divine in my life! It transports me to that very beautiful place within myself rich in its peaceful, loving, silence where I know we connect.

Thank you ever so much for your love and generosity.

Thank you for being you:)

Clare (Assistant to TLC 2006-2009)

Thank you. That sessions was lovely. Your voice has a sweetness that brings giggles. It is wonderful to be able to connect to our puppy, Nikki, like that; comforting, supportive.

Much love

Tina and Ted

Laurie, Thank you for sharing from your heart. I am grateful to be one with whom you share your transparency. you have quite a following. Look at the people who follow you around. Although, you have truths to share, you do not present yourself as superior to others in any of your seminars, why then do you think others would think less of you knowing of your goal to teach love to everyone who will listen? Even though you are a spirit in a body with a passion to teach people that all is love, your 3D body takes over at times and provides you with opportunities to experience stuff which you would rather not have to deal with. (Keep in mind that it seems to have a positive ending. ) To some degree that happens to all of us. In your seminars there are times when you are beingness, the spirit. However, there are other times when you allow your humanness to show. In those times, we all can relate to you because we all have challenges in our lives and some we deal with to our satisfaction and others we would like to totally forget our ineptness. Whatever, these things happen. Your love and compassion always shows through. Your willingness to put yourself through all the complications of making a spiritual practice work in a 3D environment is admirable. Just keep being you-the love, silence, peace, kindness- which you exemplify and sometimes be the 3D self you also are.

Clare Strohman

Thank you for the call for The Love Climate on Christmas Eve. It was really warm and lovely. It was good to hear the familiar voices. We are all so blessed to have such deep resonant relationships.

I just had another monumental healing of family relationships with my youngest son, his wife and 2 children .This relationship was the one I counseled with you about after the first satsang I attended. After 2 years of not talking, we have reconciled and just got together Friday and yesterday for two days of warm, caring, easy being together. It feels miraculous to me, I feel as though I've been released from jail after years of imprisonment.

I'll have to share more with you about some of these amazing transformations, since the satsangs have played a big part in my being able to face my shadow or demons, as it were. The container of love the satsangs create enables us to have the courage to look behind the curtain and admit our mistakes. At least that is how it works for me.

Until I was able to see how I was creating the dysfunction and disharmony with my son and his family, I couldn't even begin to have a healed relationship with them. But without a safe place to fall, I didn't dare admit my part in the problem. That issue I had with some one at the satsang who approached me honestly during staff meeting cracked it open for me. I saw myself as my daughter-in-law saw me and then I knew why she reacted to me the way she did. It took another year before I was able to go deeper within and dig out the rest of the toxic sludge. Then my other son's near death experience catapulted both of us into another dimension of awareness. That effected all the other relationships in a huge way.

So thank you Dr. Laurie for your loving presence and your willingness to be so transparent. It truly enables us to follow in your footsteps and do the same.
Shirley Hart

It was a real pleasure to meet with Dr. Laurie Moore. She started the workshop off with excitement and kept it going through the whole time. She was thoughtful and inciteful. She gave everyone an opportunity to express themselves. It was a very moving and personal experience.
Angie

Dr. Laurie is very sweet spirited, and is genuine in the delivery of her messages from our animal friends. She interacts well with both the 2, and 4 legged participants. I am very interested in her 3 day seminar.
K Youmans

This is a seminar and teacher that... changed my life. She is the closest thing you can find to an angel incarnated. She is creating the world as it can be!
JoyceAnne Pierce www.YesICanSucceed.com

I was able to be myself 100% authentically as I committed because her environment invites that. I pushed peoples' buttons and then we worked that out and returned to love. Her seminar changed my life.
Brad Tilden, musician

By the end of the seminar the only things to say to anyone were I love you, thank you, I forgive you and I am sorry. Dr. Laurie taught us to refind the unconditional love we have for each other. I am coming back again!

Richard Smith, artist

My mind got mixed up and didn't know what she was asking of me and she kept pushing me further. Finally I POPPED into UNCONDITIONAL PEACE which turned out to be my true nature.

Julie Zack, massage therapist

Every time I come to the seminar miracles occur!

Paula Nelson, real estate

I need to get a Dr. Laurie fix. She reminded me that I am perfectly okay exactly as who I am.

Sandy Walters, Sales manager

I still show up at your seminars because there is much that you teach that I love to witness and I am learning, perhaps very slowly, and by patient repetition of what I see. Thank you, thank you, and thank you for the work you do. And it is true that the key is the energy that you focus on but what really rings my bell, Laurie, is that the energy of the group is given willingly in response to your invitation and it is that amazing energy that I see push so many miracles. It sets us free to be magnificent. Thank you.

Rich

Such an honor and blessing to be in your presence at the seminar. It was life altering.

Miriam

It was so wonderful, invigorating, sweet. I feel all the presence of all the participant's angelic bodies really yummy. Megan

Laurie, it's Mike from your last seminar in Santa Cruz. I have been seeing you in my dreams. In an animal and human meeting place. I also feel a good deal of healing in that same ruby color that you generate when you teach. I have told my holiest dentist and two other doctor friends about you. They will contact you soon! I have added you to my list to Padma to bless us with enough wealth to make all your plans a reality for us all. I would love to spend a lot more time with you, you dakini you! All my love and prayers for your success. Mike

Laurie, if I had a million dollars it would all be yours to support your wonderful work. Thank you!

I know you spoke to my cat who passed over. You speak the truth.

Donna

Mahalo again for all the beautiful work you bring to this world. I had a reunion with friends I made on the Hawaii trip last night.

We all snuggled up on the couch kind of like being up on our lanai in Kealakakua bay to watch our Hawaiian journey with the dolphins that is featured in the upcoming Home Study Kit on Money, Enlightenment, Love and Miracles. I felt so much love that night that my heart chakra was aching a good ache. Your love brought us together and for this I am grateful. Me ke aloha, eunie. Tee hee.
Eunie

I love to hear from you. You are one of the most full of light people I know.
Ken Ohme

Hi Dearest Laurie!

I just graduated as an Associate Chef and Teacher from the Living Light Culinary Arts Institute in Fort Bragg!!! As I drove home through the beautiful redwoods and flowers, I became aware that it was on that very weekend one year ago that I somewhat reluctantly agreed to attend your seminar on behalf of a friend (L_____) who could not come (going somewhere new by myself was a little outside my comfort zone, but not anymore!). Well, obviously it was spirit moving in my life, because I loved your seminar and you! It was after the two day seminar and on the drive home that I received my answer about my calling: to teach people how to nurture themselves through food by creating (and eating) a life of abundance, not restrictions or diets! (Bonus: you lose weight and feel and look fabulous!) So here I am one short year later, a chef and teacher! I attribute that to the energy you create in your seminars and that you teach us to believe in Spirit, in ourselves and in miracles. You are such a gift to me and to everyone you touch. You are an amazing woman.

I also reflected that I want to spend more time in service to you, it truly makes me happy and I believe in what you are doing. .

With Love,
Christina

We saw Dr. Laurie last week after 13 years of marriage challenges. Last week was the best year of our marriage ever! We are coming in regularly.

Dear People of Heart:

In my work with Laurie I have had experiences of heaven on earth with overflow into mundane life. Laurie conveys esoteric knowledge and wisdom as well as practical teachings in how to handle difficult life situations. She leads us to discover for ourselves a way that is less of what we do than of who we are . . . this through ever deeper experiences of limitless love and trust that are always available.

In our practice with inter species communication and joyful experiences of Nature we realize our interconnectedness with all species from dolphins and whales to cacti, trees, flowers, insects and birds--all of it including our pets at home. We share ever more profoundly in the oneness of being in the great Love.
Mara Sussman

Dear Laurie,

I was talking about you to a lover and all of a sudden I got this intense message from you so clearly. I think we have or you have an amazing power really.
Alicia

Thank you for your great work!
Annette

Thank you for an amazing weekend!
Julie

You are like the Divine Mother, always bringing love. You and Ray are like Adam and Eve. Thank you.
Waldemar

Dearest Laurie,

I wanted to let you know how grateful I am to you for last weekend, it was amazing and exactly what I needed. Your love, honesty, integrity, and grace filled me with so much happiness and love and helped me move into my inner space and explore. I don't know how to thank you, words can not express how I feel about you and what you have done for me and for many others. I know that you will touch many people's lives and reach them as you have reached me. I am so looking forward to Hawaii and what lessons it will bring.

Much love to you
Maryam

Laurie:

Thank you for the session. It was really helpful and built on what I have been learning here in Hawaii in acceleration. It helped to fill in some gaps that I was feeling anxious or unsure about. It reinforced some things. The theme was right on. Thank you also for the sliding scale during this challenging economic time. I was able to apply the lesson with a glimpse of finding the contentment in times that feel good as well as times that feel like a let down. I was able to find that being content is available in both these situations. I really appreciate your help and care. Thank you!

Jill

Thank you for inspiring me to open to life again and again by how you approach life, Laurie.

Ken

PS: I had a similar experience in a dream with a dolphin -- so difficult to put into words.

Hi Laurie,

I congratulate you on your work! You have always been on the edge of your destiny and also a talented marketer in terms of putting yourself out there. Most people don't have both those gifts and capabilities in one body.

I love that you're so connected with the animal world. To my mind, this is one of the most important kinds of work we can do. Your statement that we need to love everything that we're doing and that happens to us is very profound, and a practice I've been at work on for decades! You frame it (with your voice on your website) in a very different way from the perennial wisdom around this, with your signature spirit, which is light, upbeat, bright. What an invitation to people to think of this practice not as an agonizing, difficult task, but a delight.

Hallelujah!!

With appreciation,
Willow

Thank you Laurie, for your beautiful experiences that you share-that sounds awesome! Within challenging circumstances, I am also feeling a lot of happiness, light and love and I'm very grateful! Love and joy to you! Julie Hi Laurie! Absolutely breathtakingly beautiful experience you had with the turkey vultures and masters.

I hope your Mexico Satsang is full of magic and wonder, excitement and accelerated growth. It certainly sounds like it!

I am there with you in spirit-

See you at all three Hawaii Island Satsangs~Love,

I feel the most blessed to have hung out with you by phone as friends and women in this process, discussing and chatting about all sorts of fascinating and fun things - getting to know you is a joy and I am glad it will continue in Santa Cruz and Hawaii where I will manage and assist!! I feel good feelings toward you too, and I so value your sending me a note, assuring me of your good feelings. Much Love Always, Lesley

And thank you too Laurie, with all of my heart a million times for always treating me so dearly and lovingly. I have truly experienced love, learned more about how to express love, and had so many opportunities to work through my heart with you and the people in your groups.

It has and hopefully will continue to be a blessing to help with TLC. The miracles have worked their creation in my life since being involved with the organization, and TMG has left in it's wings of flight a ripple of heaven on this earth. You have done SO well Laurie, I commend you on so many levels.

You (and many others) have given this dream incredible solid commitment and energy for it's manifestation, congrats! I wish TLC in it's next chapters of creative writing on this planet all it needs for a solid landing, truly the miracle ground we stand upon to manifest these acts of heaven on earth through TLC. Yes we can!!

We, together, are learning how to weave heavenly consciousness into earth reality, and we're getting better at it as we combine the rules of both dimensions into a balanced and practical means to create through. I've really been impressed with the growth and what you've learned throughout the time I've been involved. Quite the evolution. I especially saw it last retreat, through Tina (member of the assistant team) as expressed in a very different much more grounded and real vibration than in previous retreats. Progress is definite, and the efforts have been worth it.

Will keep space held for all that is needed to be known re assistants, needs, and organization for my piece of the love climate cookin'.

Good night, and fare very well Ms Warm sun Laurie Moore! ~Erin Pasco
Thank you Dr. Laurie!

Blessings to you kindest of souls and wondrous inspiration to so many!

Dear Dr. Laurie:

I just wanted to thank you for all your love and understanding with my daughter, S____, during her dog's passing. Once again you are truly an angel to our family. My other daughter and I were on the phone most of the weekend with S____ and I know that you brought her a great deal of peace during and after her dog family member's passing. I just wanted you to know how very much you helped us all. Please give Jessie a big hug for us all.

Always, Mary

Those of you who live near me probably have met my dog, Taipei, and know that she is high energy and loves to lick and spin and bark. The licking was driving me crazy!

I recently experienced an animal communication session with Dr. Laurie Moore who spoke to Taipei - as well as a couple of my other animals who had transitioned years ago. What was most valuable about the session was that it gave me new insights and understanding about Taipei's behavior and gave me comfort about the animals who had transitioned - a way to say good-bye to them.

Dr. Laurie was spot on about Taipei's personality, which gave me confidence about what she said was Taipei's answer to the question of why licks incessantly. Taipei's answer: she needs to lick otherwise she will get angry! I take that to mean that she dispels a lot of her energy with the licking and, if she can't lick, she will

(as she said) get angry!

Due to the session there is a new development in my relationship with Taipei: I am more patient and understanding with her about the licking. I know the only one I can change is me - and this session has helped me to change how I think about Taipei's licking (not to mention alleviating concerns that she had some nutritional deficiency - hard to believe with the food she gets!) After the session I noticed that Taipei seems more willing to stop the licking after a few minutes - it's like she gets now that it was very irritating to me.

You can arrange to speak to your animal friends whether they are domestic, wild, alive or passed over by contacting Dr. Laurie Moore's office at 831-477-7007 or emailing Richard@DrLaurieMoore.com.

You can receive a full free scholarship to her animiracle Seminar in California (create miracles in your life and learn to speak to animals).

Email Laurie@DrLaurieMoore.com to receive your full free scholarship with no strings attached. If enough of you in Colorado are interested, Dr. Laurie said she'd be willing to come here to do a seminar in Colorado - so let Dr. Laurie know.

Blessings,
Bonnie

Dear Laurie;

My dog truly did reincarnate. Thank you. (Dr. Laurie adds that this was very amazing for me. I was called at the same time and date to the SPCA as my client was where I got to witness the angels coming in and a dog who had promised to reincarnate do so right there. It was spectacular. Every time I recall this day I tingle with glitter gold magic. Thank you to the person and canine who share this:)

I slept very hard last night, did NOT feel like getting up! Got up to what seemed like a regular morning. My body felt kind of light. I made up my mind not to get involved in the normal mind chatter. I visualized pushing the people in my life with bad energy over the edge of the world to let them fly into the universe. I added a bit of humor to this by visualizing that they were wearing bloomers, so when I pushed them over all I could see were white bloomers sticking up in the air!

On my way to work up Hwy. 101 I could see a rainbow in the distance ahead of me. I looked closer and saw two rainbows together. As I approached, I saw to my left THREE rainbows, all at once, all in the same area. It was like a triple rainbow! I've never seen anything like that before. The sky was gloriously bright, the clouds white and fluffy, with shimmering, silver light peeking out and streaming down to earth. I felt as if I was flying. I got messages that I have been shown miracles and I am well aware of these miracles, trust this magic energy, go to that place in my heart (for it is in your heart) and feel it, stay there, you will see more and more miracles unfolding, some simple, some beyond your comprehension. It started sprinkling, I felt fear, they said No need to fear! Stay with the magic, it is MUCH stronger, do not take the fool's journey, fly through the fear.

I felt incredible energy in the car, as I glanced into the backseat to see Abbey, she raised her head and looked at me, I got the message that she IS magic, this IS Sandy, she is a Master Teacher who will continue to teach and show me. We will fly together.

The radio was playing that song from the Movie Flashdance, about in a flash it takes hold of your heart, dancing through your life, take your passion and make it happen, etc. etc. I cried tears of joy.

Needless to say, it took a while for me to calm down after I got to work! I just wanted you to know what happened.

Much love,
C.M. and A.M.

Thank you so much, Dear One,
I found our session very powerful and I and Cathlin are truly grateful. You are blessed and sent much Love daily in prayer.
Prayers for your May sessions as well.

Thanks, Laurie. I love your integrity, which is paying off for you in wonderful karma and strong relationships that are in alignment with your dreams and mission!! The dolphins want to remind you how powerful and on purpose you are NOW!! .

Dear Dr. Laurie,
Your Miracle Seminar was a tour de force! Enjoyed by and enlightening for all of us. I know you put months and months of hard work into making this beautiful event happen.

You really impressed me with your videos of TV interviews - they were wonderful, and your responses, so quick and sound, rang through every time. Also, you looked absolutely gorgeous!

My client Betsy also loved your work and benefited from your gifting. I will suggest that she call on you for one of your readings like you did for me and several of our Guild members.

Thank you again, Laurie. You will be in my prayers for a long time.

Dear Laurie,

This is amazing - I was going to send you an email today, and this came into my inbox before I had a chance to write to you. I wanted to express my gratitude - here's the story: A month or so ago in your newsletter you wrote about meditating on gratitude when you were on the Rikki Lake show and what a positive and immediate impact it had on your business. I'm self-employed as an artist (I do a lot of work decorating harpsichords), and on Sunday morning I decided I was going to meditate for an hour on the gratitude I feel toward the clients I have right now and have worked with in the past. As soon as I got centered down to meditate, you were the first image that came into my mind, and I consciously held you and your cat (I remember you have this amazing relationship with your cat) in a circle of light, and tried to send images of how much I appreciate you putting out the newsletter, and for speaking to the dowsers (which is where I met you). I spent the rest of the hour focusing on other clients, and ended up feeling really good about the people I've been lucky enough to work with. The very next morning, when I got into work, there was already a message waiting about a new project! Then today - I got this email from you about this seminar, which will be an enormous help to me. I have wonderful clients, but the work flow isn't steady enough. And cash flow is a chronic problem. So I just wanted to put it out there and acknowledge how grateful I'm feeling. I hope it all comes back to you one hundred-fold.

warmly,
Adrian Card

Hi Dear Laurie,
Is your full name Laurie or Laurelyn?
I would like to schedule a session.
I miss your kind embrace in your intelligence responses
Your smile shows your wisdom
Your answers and responses always make sense and help me realize how much I can change my thinking to feel better about living all the time and feel the goodness

Dear Laurie,
I was there but came in late and was planning on sending you an e-mail this morning anyway to tell you how great it was. I have been working with affirmations for a long time and hearing you talk about the for the highest and best of all concerned was helpful to me....or more importantly the part where you talked about me thinking it is for my highest and best good and that of the man I am involved with but am going through a difficult time right now and that that may be because there is something better for each of us although despite this trouble we are having right now I know we are meant to be.
Thanks

Dr. Laurie changed my best friend's life and she has never been the same. Then she helped me have an experience that is beyond anything I have ever had. A deep peace as my beloved canine passed on. I shared this with my canine.

Sondra

Laurie,
In the short time we have been on the teleseminar, I've noticed soft, yet profound changes. In my wording, in my attitude and focus, and in my thinking.
I am truly grateful for this opportunity to work with you.
I am also happy to gift you an Intention program, so you are more familiar with me and the work I do.
I believe we both add to the 'Good News' here on planet Earth.
Fondly
JoyceAnne

Dear Friends,
I have something exciting to share with each of you. My life has been changing dramatically the past few months and one reason, is through the amazing work of Dr. Laurie Moore <http://www.animalintuitivereadings.com> . I am happier, more at peace, moving forward in life towards manifesting more and more of my desires. I am truly more eager and excited than I can ever remember!! Little things keep happening day by day and I never know what magical opening will occur the next day! I am so Grateful my own friend sent me the link to her website! So I decided to pass along the favor to you!!

A friend sent me a link to her website to offer me some ideas for my own animal communication business. Instead I met a woman who is out to change the world, one person at a time with love. I had a private session with her and released a decades long issue of feeling ?not good enough?. I was very surprised and delighted. I am now in the process of taking one of her classes called Unconditional Awakening. Each week we focus on the issue of Gratitude and how that affects our lives. Then we have a short presentation by some amazing people, work with a student about what we learn and receive an animal message at the end. Here are some examples.

Bari Tessler taught us about conscious bookkeeping? where we do a Map of Intention, instead of the standard budget. If I consider I am paying a bill for the purchase of my sanctuary, it can change my relationship with money and how I view this whole process. We talked about making daily Intentions and dreaming bigger than ever before.

Marvin Cohen taught us we need more than love to have successful relationships, whether romantic or with our careers, family, community. We discussed criteria catastrophe and how it is important to know where we want to live, the lifestyle we desire, our purpose and values and how these all help us determine what is going to work or not work for us in all areas of our lives. He taught me about having a clear vision and asking for what I really want.

Jesse Koren shared about creating a heart felt business and how being a healer

you are a natural salesperson, because you naturally desire to help people reach their goals. It can be effortless and you must have a willingness to do whatever it takes and you are guided to do. He explained how to rejuvenate your practice, schedule in time for fun and remain in balance. The power of setting intentions and the willingness to be in the receiving mode.

Each week seems so simple and yet, the results can be very profound when you follow through with the suggestions which are made during the one hour class each week on the phone. I suggest you check out her website and write her if you have any questions. Sometimes she has amazing offers and scholarships I have taken advantage of. You might gain some insights or inspiration just reading her great articles! Or Forward this to someone else who might be interested! I love you!

I wish you a great year filled with an abundance of things you desire to manifest!

Much Love and Magic, Morgine

Thank you for a miraculous experience. I learned so much practical and spiritual teachings. You are so generous. Thank you for including me in your life's purpose.

On the way home from your Animal Intuitive Seminar, Spirit spoke to me very clearly that my path in life is to draw on my 30 years of nutritional knowledge to become a nutritional life coach and a certified raw food chef!! I had been praying about my calling in life for some time, but after your seminar I was so in the NOW that it just became perfectly clear. What a magical day you had for us!

Thank you, thank you.

Christina Basor

Aloha Laurie!

Thank you for the work you're doing!

Having just reviewed lots of instances of people having transformative experiences, I was able to remind myself, in the moment, that gifts come to us in lots of ways and if we stay present and in gratitude - we can look deeply, and recognize and appreciate experiences for the gifts that they are-even if we can't answer why they came occurred that way.

Yesterday, we had a boat trip with Joan and another woman on the island, Phillipa, who arranges boat trips for guests to swim with the dolphins - each had brought some guests who were visiting.

We found a pod of dolphins in Keahole Bay - next to the airport - and had a nice time. The dolphins weren't terribly interactive with us, but came up to see us several times. Then we began to notice quite a few 'sea bees' floating around us..they're like little clear capsule shapes --in the jellyfish family, I would guess. They sort of sting when they touch your skin -- and Joan mentioned to be on the lookout for 'Blue Bottles' which are also jelly-like and maybe the size of a roll of quarters - with sort of an electric blue color at one end...and tentacles that are fine like a cobweb, but have little blue dots along their length, spaced one every 1/8 inch or so...I was wearing a dive skin and began to notice the sea bees on my hands and face - so I got back in the boat. The dolphins, by the way, had moved further out from the bay to deeper water.

We continued on north to see if there were pods up there..had a great time snorkeling at Makalawena, but no dolphins. So we went back to Keahole Bay and one of the guests and I jumped in to see if the dolphins would come by -- nope, but we both got the tentacles of one or more (not sure) Blue Bottles on us - she had a tentacle wrapped around her arm and I had one wrapped around my neck. Quite a bit more uncomfortable than the little sea bees! Apparently, urine is a good topical remedy...and I can attest that it helped somewhat.

So Douglas heads back toward the harbor and after we got south of the energy lab, a woman on the boat asks if she can jump in and pee. While she's in the water, I look north toward the energy lab and see a Spinner dolphin leaping out of the water over and over. So I point out that we have dolphins again and when she gets back in the boat, Douglas takes us up to see what they're up to.

Well, an adult had been jumping out of the water - and a little one was lunging, not getting much more than its head out of the water..and it had one pec fin up. At first it looked like it was waiving - but it kept moving with its body tipped over to one side - making a circular path. I asked Douglas if I could get in and see if something was tangled around it or if it was wounded...so I got my fins and mask on and hopped in. The adult (momma or auntie) was hanging by watching and I could hear her vocalizations in the water. I moved slowly towards the little dolphin and then I stopped and floated, went into my heart with the intent to communicate I want to help. I won't hurt you. Can I come closer and see what's wrong? We love you. -- the adult was about 20 feet beyond the little one and watching as I started to slowly approach the dolphin, I saw Joan swim up from behind the dolphin and gently right the dolphin in the water - it had been tipped over and its blowhole was under the surface. So then I thought, good, Joan's here. That dolphin has the best person possible assisting it! Then Phillipa swam up and as Joan held the dolphin, I dove under to see if I could see any wounds or anomalies. I noticed there was chartreuse fluid spilling out the corner of the little one's rostrum. Joan said that if they've eaten something bad, they don't seem to have a vomit technique..she said it may have taken in a Blue Bottle or similar type of jelly and then shut down once it was inside and starting stinging..it wouldn't open its blowhole. Joan tried to resuscitate the little guy, but it was like the hole was sealed. I held the little dolphin while Joan took a look. The whole time- even treading water with my head out of the water, I could hear the adult vocalizing but lost sight of it soon after the three of us were with the little one. We couldn't feel a heartbeat and after a little while Joan suggested we say a prayer and let it go on into the light. Shortly after, I apparently drifted into another Blue Bottle, whose tentacles were across my back (no dive skin this time). It felt like every one of those blue dots fired off the equivalent of a wasp sting simultaneously. I knew grabbing it would just get it wrapped around my hand - and I managed to find another tentacle anyway with my hand on the way back to the boat. Joan raised her hand out of the water and had an entire Blue Bottle on her hand! Douglas got something to grab it with and we got back on the boat.

Needless to say it was a sobering interaction.
But the reason I'm writing is because while I was in the water, holding this little dolphin while Joan tried to keep it alive - I consciously chose to be grateful and see the event as an extraordinary gift, even though I didn't know the purpose. I trusted that we were in the flow and that it was a gift to experience this with Joan and Phillipa and Douglas. I noticed how the adult completely trusted us with the little one! This in itself blows me away when I think back. And the little dolphin modeled such peace - it didn't twitch, wince, squirm - it may have already passed by the time we got to it..? But its rostrum was slightly open and its little teeth were both quite numerous and looked incredibly sharp -- Joan also modeled - for me at least - such gentle care, love and calm in the midst of a challenging situation. It was weird but it felt like more was happening than met the eye

- like the whole thing was part of an activation..I trust that it was divinely orchestrated, even though I don't understand exactly why - I chose then and still choose to be in a state of joy and gratitude for that experience - hopefully helping the little dolphin pass gracefully and surrounded in love. And I can see the Blue Bottles at Keahole Bay helping us out of the water so we wouldn't miss our encounter -- then the woman who had to pee - making us pause during our journey south, which is when I looked back and saw the adult Spinner dolphin jumping over and over. And then the Blue Bottles after the dolphin passed - almost sealing/searing the experience so I would pay attention to what occurred and perhaps look deeper.

Phillipa commented that the little dolphin was perfect - and it was, there were no wounds at all - while I was holding it, I realized how delicate and fragile and beautiful life is...and I think it's no coincidence that I had finished reviewing all the tapes you sent and witnessing all of the transformations people relayed on tape...and noting the steps you use to help people. Thanks to the tapes, the little voice in my head was already hip to stay in gratitude - and to actually do it as it was happening was a blessing. I stayed calm and present and in a state of gratitude during the experience. Very beautiful.

Anyway, I'm not known for sharing - but I thought I'd let you know that thanks to your tapes, I was able to consciously choose to experience yesterday with joy and appreciate the gift it is.

Mahalo, john

Heya Laurie-

Thank you not only for supporting my choices (which you always have done), but for validating that my choices fall into Divine Planning/Timing.... it just helps me have more faith in me. :)

Blessings on your newest venture!

peace!

Seth

Hi Laurie,

Our heads are spinning with all of the things we were told. We can't seem to look at the cats the same way anymore. Everyone who meets JoJo says he's a unique cat...but who knew...I've always felt grateful to have them, but that feeling has certainly grown since our meeting. We've told friends and house sitters to make sure they tell our bug cat Matt how much they love his size!

Thanks - that was quite an amazing experience.

Luanne

Good Morning!!

Thank you for your email, that was so nice of you to send it personally and to let me know I'm confirmed!! I'm thrilled about attending. I've heard wonderful things about you from two of my friends, Suzanne and Cheryl was kind enough to share a couple of the readings that you gave her about her dog Cisco and I was totally blown away, and she's the one that told and invited me to this event I'm very excited; thank you again for your email.

Peggy

Hi Laurie: The environment you created was incredible. so full of light...so high..so full of love! Peggy

My mother just went to your seminar and raved about it for over 2 hours!

Thank you so much!

Sarina Le Sieur

Bless you Laurie!!! The more aware I become, the more beautiful you and all my spiritual friends live for me!!!

Love, John

P.S. Here is a section from the reading I did for you: And when one comes from Universal Love, even when we seem petty and small at times, I imagine that the Universe is praying that we wish for a kindler and gentler and wiser lessons and expressions of Love... It just a question of can we stand IT!!! .....My answer is YES!!!

Thanks Laurie.

I'm very happy you have found a spiritual person to take over your company! Jesse agrees, yes?

As to you being embarrassed recently and sharing this with us....please realize it is just an illusion we are trying to live in. Since I have known you, you have been pushed to the hilt preparing for these various seminars of love. I commend you for pushing through all those opportunities to see yourself experience that part of you which is not your gift and which is. Now you are at a place to be open to shoring up that which was perhaps overwhelming before. Love the experience; love yourself for making choices and manifesting happiness for yourself and the world. I just want to say that I have seen you persevere and am thrilled to have such a open and loving teacher / mentor in my life.

Thanks for being you:)
Clare

Thank you for a session that was life changing!
Morgine,
I love how you always think about everyone's well being. You are a miracle.

Hello, Laurie, I just needed to tell you today that I am SO GRATEFUL to have journeyed with you during this lifetime and to have experienced your Light and Love. Thank you so much for the GIFT of you. It brings tears to my eyes to realize God's precious gift of you for me. Thank you, thank you, for being here on this earth and for making my world a more loving, sane, joyful, inspirational magnificent place to be.

Jean,
I am so happy you came to lead this. I feel something from inside you which brings out something important in me. Thank you.
Sue

Dear Dr. Laurie:

Words cannot express my gratitude to you and my friend for giving me the opportunity to communicate with my dog as she was getting ready to pass on, on a deeper more spiritual level. I was able to keep her safe, warm and relaxed. You told me that she did not want to go to the vet initially to be put asleep because she still had something to communicate. I trusted that and released the need to control the situation based on fear and doubt. I surrendered to her will, her needs. She communicated so much to me through her eyes-we bonded on a totally new spiritual level like never before. When she finally passed I felt her in my heart-that she would be with me forever. Thank you again. Thank you also for checking in with me after our talk-your clarity was amazing!

Sondra

Laurie,

Yes, love is the single most important experience we shall have. The only experience that is capable of involving us deeply and completely on all levels of our being. Thank you sweet Angel for being the essential connection that brought all of us together. Warm hugs to you, Robin.

Thank you, Dr. Laurie for all your help with me and my mom and our dog H----- --. Knowing that I could tell you what I needed to let M----- and Higgins know made me feel so much at peace. I was so happy when I heard M----- call you and ask you to talk to us. There is so much I want them to know about my transition and how much I love both of them. You are a very special human. I trusted you because you took such good care of M----- when she needed someone special in her life. You are Gold. Your Friend Always. I love you.

After Dr. Laurie met with my dog , she never ran away again. She showed us how our hearts were linked. There was a big change.

Herby, Chiropractor

Dr. Laurie talked to our dig and told us that we needed to make some changes in our relationship according to our dog. She told us accurate and private things that only our dog would know. We made the necessary changes. I am telling all my friends about her readings.

Jody

You know exactly what to do each moment of the seminar to keep the group growing and flowing.

Dean, Engineer

I love your light and your beautiful singing voice but most of all I love your laugh!

Sabinie, Energy Shifter

I very much appreciate ALL the information you have relayed. It resonated deeply with me and I needed to hear it from a source outside myself. Thank you for the confirmation and the insight. You are a gift in my life to be sure. -

Lucy, Intuitive Reader

Thank you Dr. Laurie, You are amazing. I didn't trust myself but than you affirmed what I was thinking about my dog. this whole lesson has been about trust.

Kate

What an amazing gift you are and you have!! I was not clear on the Zebra medicine in my reading , hours after I read that part I get this powerful picture of these two beautiful Zebras in the mail!!! My frightened little boy thanks you and the spirit of the fairies and am watching my judgments transmute into respect for the opportunity for the lessons and so much more.

Allen, Inventor

This reading is amazing. You are hearing the things I think to myself. This is exactly right.

Tammy , Therapist, Animal rights Activist

I burst into tears during the reading. A lot of it makes total immediate sense and some of it leaves me with things to work on. It was very apropos to what is going on with me. Powerful. Fabulous food for thought. All you said about my cat's soul purposes makes so much sense and you were right about their very different personalities. Also, you helped me to understand one of them better as I had not been aware of some of who he is in his experience. Thank you. I will gladly send others to you.

Alice, Consultant

Thank you so much for being there. every aspect of my life has changed and you have enlightened me. Thank you so much., you gave me that push . Everything is working so well in every way. Thank you.

Dear Laurie

Thank you with all my heart for this reading

They are so close to me - I want to tell one story each;

My son died in 2004 at age 28 and each evening before I went to sleep my friend liz came to give me healing

I lay on my bed and she placed her hands on my tummy - Lucy found a way to put her paws in between Liz 's and purred away

A while afterwards - when Liz stopped coming Lucy continued waiting on top of the stairs for me every night - then as I lay there, obedient to my cat , I receive healing and listen to Madam's distinctive purr

Priscilla, was very close to Zane, my son, and whenever he was sad she waited outside his bedroom door for as long as it took for him to emerge

I am blessed to have them

And

Yes. Priscilla is 'itchy' and has been all summer, I cheated a little, not knowing what else to do, the vet insisted on giving her a small steroid injection

It is slowly improving

Thank you again and how do I repay you

All love

Dearest Laurie:

How nice to hear the splendid news! You are moving to the land where spiritual aroma is in the air all the time. I think it is a timely change for the service to all who are touched by your presence. Roop

Laurie:

Your sharing of recent experiences have up lifted my heart at a time when I needed it. It is fantastic to learn about Erin's baby. She will be a loving parent and wonderful guide for her daughter. I am also glad to learn that you are moving you base of operations to Hawaii. Your loving spirit belongs in that beautiful part of the world. If you ever need someone to wash your car or do your dishes, please let me and Helen know, we would sacrifice and move to Hawaii. All my best to you and yours. Please let Erin know the joy that we feel about her baby.

Take Care - Joe & Helen.

Dear Laurie Love,

In full Love and Gratitude I am thankful for the everlasting experience of one week ago. Something has shifted in me permanently and it's with me at all times once I shift my attention to it - the moment of clarity that I mentioned to you that very evening. Thank you for your loving support and friendship. I have been calling to you in my prayers and meditation. Be blessed.

I am very touched by your passion to continue our work together on Kauai. I will be in school on the indicated March dates but I do have a feeling that the plans are not cast in stone. The handy man position seems to be calling my name :)

Next year's outlook for myself is very interesting and exciting. Please give my hearts deepest love and blessings to Ray and Jessie.

With Love and Gratitude,
Waldemar

Dear sister,
you were on my mind and this email really reminded me of you. I want to thank you again for the incredible journey in Hawaii, it was amazing and even though, I am back in Portland dealing with the same issues as I left, I have a different perspective and have the knowledge that I can tune into whenever needed. It has been a bit of a challenge to remember to tune in to the love and go deep inside with all of the distractions, but I have the peace of mind knowing that I can reach the place I reached within me on the retreat whenever I want to. thank you for the opportunity and I plan on doing it again and manifesting more trips with you. I also wanted to let you know I will start sending my payments starting September if that is OK. Much love to you, Ray, and JJJ.
Maryam

Hi Laurie,

I knew you would have an incredible satsang this time around, it would have been inconceivable for you not to... I'm glad to hear that you are committed to moving to Hawaii, it makes so much sense on all levels... It was insightful reading about you and your satsang through the perspective of your participants... It felt familiar in a reminiscent way... So, you had communion with a Bee? Hmmm, interesting... Not surprising either.

P.S. I'm sure you must have seen the total eclipse of the sun... it's funny but I was singing a song from Pink Floyd's album The Dark Side of the Moon/Eclipse about seeing people on the Dark side of the moon... Then, suddenly, this eclipse occurs... Was very symbolic... You know Laurie, I am an Aquarian Moon and I wrote a little tune called Requiem for the Aquarian Moon... But you know, when you show up sometimes, it feels like the resuscitation of the Aquarian Moon...Hah, I crack myself up, and I seem to consistently do so around you... Well, Sweetheart, you are one of my tether lines as I am diving deep into the deepest caves... Not everyone can or wants to swim in the ocean, but I'm sure glad you do!!!!....
Love, John

I have not shed my tears like that in a while, but they were not tears of sadness -- they were the tears of sweet sorrow, divine joy, or infinite bliss. This is the best way I can describe it with plain words.

Laurie finds what each individual needs and assists us in coming to the love.
Waldemar

Thank you so much, Laurie. And Mary thanks you too - I sent your article with message from Mary to my interested friends and clients --- boy I sure wish you two could have communicated together to your group on the 6th. It is simply amazing what you do and inspire in the animals.
I know what you mean when you wrote me about those black birds - seems the large black birds carry lots of messages. They often come to assist when I remove entities from people. And on Thurs the 11th, I played at a memorial for a musician friend of mine's son, Matthew, who died in an auto shop explosion down near where you live. I arrived at the church early to set stops and rehearse w/ a singer, got out of my car and at that very moment a raven flew to the top of a tall lone redwood and made loud noises. I said, Hi Matthew!
Funny how people almost never believe that stuff. when Mary actually listens and responds, they think I'm anthropomorphizing or whatever probably worse haha - ah well. Mary is grateful for you. If you want another try at it, and do any other class or seminar, she is definitely willing to make the trip :)).
Lots of Love, Nancy

Bless you Laurie for the service you do. These words will be with me forever, as will Yogini ( Dr.Laurie adds: Yogin is an enlightened feline who went to other side for this time).

Thank you for being the Mother. I have found myself in a new way I could have never of predicted. I am in love. In each situation I am in love.
Maryam

Thank you for honoring me in so many ways, Laurie. You have loved me in a deep way. I wish to honor and love you.

Also, thank you for the lovely updates on what happened on Maui. I felt the same depth, but on Papohaku beach, in the ocean the day after everyone left. We all went through very deep waters, and came out more connected and real. I now feel more connection with people in my heart, in a very grounded way. That is very new and special to me. So, it was quite profound what was uncovered, released and revealed for me to work with on the trip. I had many very special and opening moments with everyone, it was the deepest journey with your groups that I've known. The white owl was a special sign for me, about how sacred our connection is through the lemurian energies, and how we do have that purpose to hold these frequencies on the planet. I also truly missed all of you after you left, and now I realize the deeper purpose of who comes to these seminars such as rebecca, lesley, waldemar, rachel, tracy, birgit, and of course you...the soul vibrations we all share are very much what I would consider core family. I hope to co-create and share more with you all next year, perhaps more often now. I will be in closer contact with Rebecca this year, as now I realize how special and dear she is to me as a sister. We were weeping at the airport when she left, and she is so special to me. Thank you, for perservering in and amongst so much pelikia and pain, confusion and drama to hold space for us to be together and do this healing work with each other. It is worth it! Lots of love and thanks to you Laurie. :)

On maui, the third island on my trip to hawaii with laurie moore, our group was so connected! It felt like we were our own little village. In a village, you have your lady who likes to sit and watch the birds. And you have your guy who likes his beer at that particular table. And everyone in the village loves their various people who have their various quirks. It makes the village what it is, to have those people doing what they do, and everyone accepts them and loves them for it. In our group, I felt so safe, so loved, being whatever way I am, doing whatever I cared to do. And I was so loving of every way that anyone cared to be. Waldemar loves coconuts. Yes, he's our guy who loves coconuts, in our hawaii village! And so, when Rachel went to town, she came back with a coconut, and put it in his suitcase as a surprise, because we all know he loves coconuts. Never in my life have I experienced more honor of each person, and more safety and fun inside of this – I finally understand what family can really be, what a joy it is to be joyfully received, and to joyfully receive others.

Hi Laurie!!

I miss you and our little lovely family. Life is so wonderful. I am so grateful. And on Sunday the dolphins hung out with us for over an hour. My wish come true! Awesomeness. I love hawaii! I love magdalene. I love Jesus! I love. I told my friend Masha some of what happened for me, and was moved to tears all over again.

All is so well.

Thank you for the magic and one of the best 2 weeks in my life EVER.

Congratulations Laurie! I must admit that deep down I knew the sanctuary would be yours. I could not envision anything else for you as this appeared to be the perfect fit. How exciting for you. Kenji and I are very happy for your entire family including the animals, insects and plant life.

Your seminars and meeting Mary Margaret Rose at your seminar (w/ Kenji on the panel sitting next to her) are all reasons I am purchasing my home, which should close next week. I am looking forward to moving in next weekend and when I have my open house down the road, I hope that you can both attend (and Jesse too!) Your seminar reminded me to trust in the universe and to trust my heart and intuition as I use to do when I was younger. Please let me know if you ever need a testimonial. Now, I need to focus more on what Kenji is telling me...perhaps I can set aside time everyday just to chat with her and Jesse too. Hopefully after this entire house buying and renting slows down.

CONGRATULATIONS!

April

Dearest Laurie,

As you have shared last summer about your sister, I am again moved and inspired by her heart and spirit as well as I am with yours.

Dearest Laurie; I wanted to say Thank You! so much for the reading yesterday. You have helped Abbey and Princess and me to reach a more peaceful, higher, cleaner place. We ALL thank you for the beautiful work you do.

When I came this morning to feed Princess she met me and talked to me the whole way to her feed bowl. I stood near her, and she actually came up and brushed against my pant leg. This is a big step for us, as she has never done anything like that before, aside from the occasional playful and gentle swipe at my feet when I reach for her bowl. I could hardly believe it. I told her how wonderful that was, and she looked up at me, right into my eyes, and meowed gently. I will meet with her again today in the afternoon, and every day that I can. What more can I say? Every contact with you brings magic into our lives. Thank you again.

Love and Peace,

Connie, Abbey (reincarnated canine) and Princess (feline)

I can't wait to go back to work to be in LOVE with EVERONE! Thank you for this seminar!

Christina

I learned a lot from you and your seminar. I realized I can think I am helping someone when in fact I am making them wrong, thinking they need to be the way I wish. You are quite masterful in the way you conduct a workshop, and especially in the way you lead people through processes accepting them for wherever they are and letting the process lead them to wherever it is they go. I loved watching how you had a giant bag of trips that you kept using and pulling out as each person and situation presented itself.

Randy

Laurie-

I was very happy to be invited to your workshop and to see you doing your work. Everyone there seemed so happy, involved and appreciative. I felt such love for you and I also felt proud. You work soooo hard and go through soooo much, it was absolutely wonderful to see you running a successful workshop and enjoying yourself. I love how you always have positive things to say about everyone. Thank you for inviting me. (I was a little disappointed to miss the videos, but I wasn't upset.)

You are a tremendously loving person. Thank you for all you do in this world.
Donna

Hi Laurie,

Your day long Miracles program was superb. I am proud to say that I was on a panel with a dog. ; ) That was a highlight for me.

Your comedy stuff on the video was very funny, where you wore all those wigs and spoofed being clients.

I learned a lot from you and your workshop this past Saturday. For example, in my desire to help people get it right when it comes to forming intentions, I hadn't realized that when people state their positive intention then follow it up by stating some sort of a negative commentary that (in my mind) weakens their intention, that when I correct them (believing I am being helpful), in actuality, I have made them wrong. That never occurred to me.

You are quite masterful in the way that you conduct a workshop, and especially in the way that you lead people through processes, accepting them for wherever they are, and letting the process lead them to wherever it is they go. I loved watching how you had this giant bag of tricks that you kept pulling out and using as each person and situation presented itself. You follow the energy masterfully, and it was truly a delight to be part of the entire process.

I would love to attend future workshops of yours. If you do something like this again, or the animal communication one that I missed, I would love to be a part of it. My partner would too.

: ) Love, R.P

I am grateful to serve you because you serve so many. In serving you I serve many.

What a weekend! WOW, Laurie, what a great space you set and what a terrific coming together of loving hearts.

Peter

I still show up at your seminars because there is much that you teach that I love to witness and I am learning, perhaps very slowly, and by patient repetition of what I see. Thank you, thank you, and thank you for the work you do. And it is true that the key is the energy that you focus on but what really rings my bell, Laurie, is that the energy of the group is given willingly in response to your invitation and it is that amazing energy that I see push so many miracles. It sets us free to be magnificent. Thank you.

Rich

Such an honor and blessing to be in your presence at the seminar. It was life altering.

Miriam

It was so wonderful...invigorating...sweet...I feel all the presence of all the participant's angelic bodies...really yummy. Megan

Laurie, it's Mike from your last seminar in Santa Cruz. I have been seeing you in my dreams. In an animal and human meeting place. I also feel a good deal of healing in that same ruby color that you generate when you teach. I have told my holiest dentist and two other doctor friends about you. They will contact you soon! I have added you to my list to Padma to bless us with enough wealth to make all your plans a reality for us all. I would love to spend a lot more time with you, you dakini you! All my love and prayers for your success. Mike

Laurie, if I had a million dollars it would all be yours to support your wonderful work. Thank you!

Laurie, You offered me DIVINE DETACHED LOVE state of Vairag, this spiritual freedom and detachment of the highest of ALL love. Allowing me to JUST BE with no expectations or opinions as to what is right or wrong. This peaceful serenity. This musical sound of GRACE. . I LOVE YOU. You are a Divine Vessel for God's Love. Here's a letter from Christina who assisted in Marin last September:
Hi Dearest Laurie!

I just graduated as an Associate Chef and Teacher from the Living Light Culinary Arts Institute in Fort Bragg!!! As I drove home through the beautiful redwoods and flowers, I became aware that it was on that very weekend one year ago that I somewhat reluctantly agreed to attend your seminar on behalf of a friend (L_____) who could not come (going somewhere new by myself was a little outside my comfort zone, but not anymore!). Well, obviously it was spirit moving in my life, because I loved your seminar and you! It was after the two day seminar and on the drive home that I received my answer about my calling: to teach people how to nurture themselves through food by creating (and eating) a life of abundance, not restrictions or diets! (Bonus: you lose weight and feel and look fabulous!) So here I am one short year later, a chef and teacher! I attribute that to the energy you create in your seminars and that you teach us to believe in Spirit, in ourselves and in miracles. You are such a gift to me and to everyone you touch. You are an amazing woman.

I also reflected that I want to spend more time in service to you, it truly makes me happy and I believe in what you are doing. .

With Love,
Christina

This is the best of all personal growth programs I have been to. John, DJ

I had a lot of questions but instead of asking you I saved them for myself. This is what you taught me. Marti, Artist

Hello Dr. Laurie my beloved friend,

There are no words that could accurately describe my love and gratitude for you or explain just how much I learned from you. You have helped me to change my life. I have released my fears and my grief. I could not earn enough money in 10 lifetimes to repay you.

Thank you from the very fiber of my being is just not enough. I have some things going on right now and when they settle down, I am going to devote alot of my time to you and your work. That would only be a tiny portion of my gratitude to you. I Love You Dr. Laurie!!!

Dear Laurie,

Hello there! I want to thank you for helping me with changing my fees. Whew! I went in right after we talked, and changed it all on my website once and then switched back . And I just made the change complete today.

Feels great.

A little nervous – as I was invisioning my phone ringing off the hook 5 minutes after I made the switch, but ... in due time.

Dear Laurie,

Thank you so much for your thoughts on the moths. I am reminded again of how grateful I am to have you on our side -- me and the animals, that is. :-) I do identify so strongly sometimes with the animals that I forget that I am human and not animal myself. I am putting out my apple now.

Love to you!

Karen

Bravo!!!

Laurie

Thank you for reminding us of oneness with all.

Love and light

Dear Laurie,

Loved your post on the moths & butterflies.

People are so worried about the decrease in the bee population but they don't realize that all sorts of insects and animals provide us similar services (free of charge)

I have been feeding yellow jackets whenever I ate outside for years. I just put a small portion of my serving on this side of my plate for them.

The way to keep this earth healthy and in turn to keep humans healthy is thru balance and that mean balance of all things not only our bodies.

The simple cultures realize this and provide for nature around them. Some how in all our smarts our cultures have seemed to lost this connection.

Thank you for reminding us again.

Hi Paula, Laurie's office manager:

Sounds like YOU are having a wonderful time 🥰 with Dr Laurie and we'll just have to see if I can share your gift and we could have fun. 🥰

THANK YOU Paula! Are you telling me that I can actually go to her seminar in Santa Cruz in January for free? And you will go too? Yes? I would love to receive this Free Scholarship. Thank you for thinking of me. Is Lin also going?

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

My dear Paula Froggy:

Thank you, thank you! And by the way, the 5-day trip was absolutely perfect for me in many, many ways. So many lessons from so many beings in so many forms...all in perfection. The island spoke to me very deeply. Divine Mother spoke to me very directly in my rustic cabana/spider/centipede room. I felt so thoroughly well there. It was a tonic just to breathe the air. I think I realize now that the ring of fire vision I saw when Mother was sending communication was the birth of the island itself. So awesome. Thank you for making this experience available and for allowing all that is to be in all of its perfection.

Mary Ann

There are very few people on this earth who are open to receiving all my love. I am so grateful for you on this earth. I shed tears of joy and happiness that I have someone in a physical body who can receive my love. Thank you. You are an angel on earth. -JVD

Laurie, I say to you that you were meant to soar like an eagle - you have been and are the most clearest expression of intent I have ever known!

As long as I'm able, I will always remind you of how WONDERFUL you are... you are by far the easiest person to support that I know!

.....The Honor is to Serve!

Laurie:

You are the embodiment of St Francis. You bring such loving. I love your spirit.

Rachel

Thank you, Laurie, for being a wise elder and a little sprite. Your laughter I love. You are helping me to reflect a deeper understanding of myself.

Dana

Hi Laurie:

What I'm getting about you is that you are a stand within a very 'open' system. Like you say, you have a particular methodology but it is not RIGID! In a way, your INTENT is your 'methodology'! I guess the best way for me right now to express almost that which can not be expressed is my attunement with Mayan Cosmology... In fact, for me, this is the only 'methodology' that could possibly 'fit' your intent!

Again, you are 'White Planetary Dog'... This is the 'mantra' for this signature: 'I perfect in order to love, Producing loyalty, I seal the process of heart, With planetary tone of manifestation, I am guided by the power of endlessness, I am a polar kin, I extend the white galactic spectrum.'

I do not at this time know the full meaning of this mantra(prayer), but at it's fundamental core, you are Pure LOVE Manifested, Manifest, and Manifesting!!!!

You're 'natural power' is RedPlanetaryMoon: The moon is associated with the number 9 which is associated with great masters and teachers, e.g., Buddha, Christ, Quetzacoatl(Mayan) and most certainly with female 'avatars' who no one knows about!

You are guided by WhiteMirror(Reflection of endlessness, transparency) and helped by BlueMonkey which is all about 'magic' and play!!! Your challenge and gift and that which you're present incarnation wishes to experience and get is YellowSun!!! It can be best described as 'I am that I am that I am'!!! I have witnessed two human beings that I consider friends who are YellowSun's and what I get about them is that they are who they say they are!!! In my wildest imaginations, the YellowSuns could be on their very last incarnation, period!!! And to top it off, your tone is Manifestation...fairly self-explanatory! You create a 'structure' by which divine spirit can show up in a way that all the female teachers of the past could not... You are a catalyst for the evolution of this planet... I know you are on the path because you are the Path!!! I can tell from your prior correspondences your emphasis on both feminine and masculine energies...and I'm sure you have supporters who focus on both.

In some ways, you are like me, in that, when I get bogged down in my 'stuff', I forget to BE...For you, it's forgetting to give yourself plenty of room to BE YOURSELF!!! Don't worry about whether people get you all the time or not, and that includes me at times! When people are wholly comfortable with you, then the Earth will truly be 'Heaven on Earth'! If you ever need to be reminded of how Wonderful you are, just give me a 'holler'...and I will tell you even when I am in it, on it, or out of it!!! You're intention will always remind of who I really am:

Nurturer of Primary BEING'!!!

Love, John

Hi Laurie:

I feel so acknowledged...what better way to learn than with you. I felt heard and acknowledged.

Thanks for your clarity, honesty and love..

Hi Laurie,

What a joy it was meeting and working with you!

As it turned out, after talking to the rats that day, a long time client called with a problem with swallows. I was able to call on the information you had given us, about connecting to their Divine selves and asking their soul purpose. It was a lovely conversation, deeply based in mutual respect and honoring. The client and I are going to keep in touch to see how things play out....

Also, Judith and I are so excited about our upcoming trips! It was very generous of you to work with us on the payment system. Even committing to the trip was life altering ~ so I know the trips will prove so as well.

My daughter Cara has e-mailed you about the upcoming Kona trip. She is very excited. As her mom I can say this, she is a very special and gifted lightworker with great love to offer, a true delight!

Blessings,

Viviana Hollenbeck

Dear Laurie,

Your humanity and humility is beautiful, you always speak the truth in your heart and that is one of the reasons I honor and respect you very much. And I feel that you have grown and learned so very much from this experience and now you can help others go through an experience like this.

Dr. Laurie is such a blessing in my life and to the planet! As a friend and colleague she is truly an inspiration, authentic and dedicated to manifesting her dreams to assist millions of people and animals in creating heaven on earth. She is a highly creative, gifted, intuitive, healer, musician, and spiritual teacher with the utmost integrity. She attracts such incredible people to her satsangs and Hawaii Unconditional Awakening Journeys. I thoroughly enjoyed both my Hawaii Journeys and created a new community of high-conscious loving friends as a result!

Laurie continually encourages me to create the most abundant life I deserve through her transformative offerings; books, CD's, DVD's, seminars, and experiences. I feel nourished by her light, love, joy, generosity and commitment. She also is extremely generous in giving the most value to everyone who participates in her events and making sure she has given 150%. It is such a high honor to serve Laurie and others she has entrusted to me by assisting in personal and planetary healings at her seminars. Laurie is truly a miracle worker with amazing skills in transforming stuck energy and personal issues easily and effortlessly into joy and light! I love her dearly!!

Hi, Laurie,

Thanks for the message from the dog on the other side - I don't know how to put into words what that makes me feel, apart from love and affection for this being that came into my life in such an alarming way.

Thanks for telling me - it makes me feel good...

Sorry about the PS bogging down your email. It was a photo of Hogarth, my current dog companion. I resent it before I got this message, so I hope it doesn't bog you down again.

On another note, I got really hungry while holding the sadness of the dog yesterday - was he/she starved? Do you get anything around that?

I wish you could have been a fly on the wall at the Rejuvenate workshop last weekend to hear how many people were speaking of you with love and admiration.

with love,
Adrian

Dear, Gentle Laurie,

Thanks for this...

I read your messages and went and sat outside and tears started to well up in my eyes. I felt a crushing sadness along with the urge to wail. The wonderful dog (Hogarth) who lives with me now came up and nuzzled me and sat with me for a bit. I felt as deeply sad as I did last year when my dog-friend of 8 years died.

I wanted to hold this dog, and play with it and let it know that there are people here who love it and want it to have a good life.

In the evening Hogarth and I went for our usual walk and I tried to imagine this other dog coming with us, running and playing and feeling loved and wanted. I was still feeling tremendously sad and would frequently let out audible sighs.

The sadness persisted, then about 10pm or so last night it felt like it lifted - kind of suddenly. I hope I was able to help the dog transition by holding the sadness. If you get any messages from this being, I'd love to hear what (s)he has to say.

Thank You for all your wonderful gifts and for making such a positive change in the world. I see you radiating light and love...

Hi

I just wanted you to know how much I got out of the workshop Sept 9 & 10.

It was so incredible.

I am so excited about what I learned.

I really enjoyed the people that were there also. I never could open up to a crowd and I sure did that weekend.

You are really a special person. Thank you so much for allowing us to take this incredible workshop with you.

Terri Metzler

Good Morning Dr. Moore,

I just wanted to take a few moments to thank you for the workshop last weekend and acknowledge and appreciate your generosity and gifts.

I found the workshop to be an amazing experience! You truly come from the heart and it is so apparent as you gently worked with each person. I will use the tools you provided as I continue to work on opening my own heart.

I did not purchase any of your packages as I have a large commitment that I must honor and pay off first. I am a single woman in Santa Cruz and I am sure you are aware how challenging it is to afford to live here. I do plan to work with you sometime in the future as my circumstances allow.

I wanted to acknowledge the wonderful people who volunteered as helpers. They were open, kind and loving and helped create a safe space for all of us to open up. I know you expressed concern about the hotel, but it was very comfortable and the beds were great. I like that it was on the wetlands and we could walk out and be with the wildlife and enjoy nature on our lunch time.

I am a Reiki Master/teacher and energy worker, and I would like to offer you sessions in exchange for your wonderful gift of the scholarship. I truly believe in energy exchange so there remains a balance and I am not just taking. I also know many qigong's which I would be glad to teach you. I teach a couple that would be good to do while you travel. You could also teach them to others as you felt drawn to. I have one called Aromatic Qigong, and another called Primordial Qigong which take only about 15 minutes to do and does not require a lot of space. I taught these to my friend Susan Carol who is the person who directed me to you. If you want you can ask her about them.

Please let me know if you are receptive to any of my offers. Also keep me on your mailing list as I do intend to do the Swim with the Dolphins in the future as time and money allow.
Blessings to you for your wonderful work,
Karen Vomvolakis

You have taken what every master teacher tries to teach and found the way to synthesize it and teach it in two days. I have spent many years studying with many teachers but not fully getting it. Now you truly got through to me in two days.
Thank you Vanessa

Laurie,
You always write good stuff,

Laurie, Laurie, Laurie, Laurie, Laurie!!!!

You are such an angel! Yes, I fully accept. Your graciousness makes me feel so hopeful about my future. You have no idea... perhaps you do, in retrospect... how much I needed such a gesture to arrive in my life AT THIS VERY MOMENT given the angst that I have been feeling.

I am doing my best to take proper action about these two stray cats using my own money and am struggling with my health symptoms and am doing my best to use what I just learned in my sessions with both Jane and Wayne. So, you are the sign that God gave me to keep on know that goodness is reaching through my programming.

Laurie, Laurie, Laurie... thank you! When is the next workshop?

So Much Love And Gratitude,
Sasha
Dear Laurie..

I know that you do and please believe me when I say that I feel much more secure within myself knowing that I have access to you until I get to the other side of these troubled waters.

Much Love,
Sasha

Hello Laurie,

Thank you for the wonderful weekend I experienced at the Miracle and Animal Communication Seminars in Santa Cruz last month. I apologize for the delay with my thank you and appreciation. I applaud you for the wonderful and loving work you do. You are truly an inspiration. Continue to be love and instill love to the world. Love and light is the mainstay for us all.

Laurie, thank you for the referrals. I greatly appreciate you passing my name and work to others.

With Love and Gratitude,
Sabrina

Dear Dr. Laurie,

I want to thank you for providing scholarships to your seminar. This last weekend ( Mill Valley), was so much more then I had expected. I came home with a lot to think about. I am so grateful for your gifts.

You were able to validate that I will, in deed, be working with the dolphins in a tangible way. This information touches me deeply. I became emotional, just watching your short video of people swimming with the dolphins. It feels that working with the dolphins is my souls path. This guided information came to me only two and a half years ago. I am overwhelmed by the love and generosity of these incredible beings. I feel blessed by the willingness of the dolphins and the whales, to work with me in the non-physical world, and now to know that I will also be working with them in this physical world is humbling. Thank you for this information.

It also helped me to know to focus my attention on Mexico rather then also adding Hawaii to the mix.

I put my name on your volunteer list. I look forward to the opportunity to see you again.

Many blessings to you.

Roxanne

Laurie:

I thoroughly enjoyed the Kona experience. I will always cherish it. Every day was teeming with lessons. Every person taught me something to remember, but mostly the spirit of the island itself filled me with a powerful loving wisdom and a vitality that is far beyond words. I felt truly blessed by the energy of creation in that place. I would love to live there. Thank you for your guidance and acceptance of all-that-is. It was a powerful facilitator for the best possible experience for all, in my humble opinion.

Much love,

MaryAnn

Your welcome Laurie,

You know that I see myself in you.....you are so caring, so sharing, and by God's divine grace we are getting the info that we need to be more discerning. Set stronger boundaries and trust God that we have done our part.

When I can benefit you in anyway I am benefitted as well,

You are a dear sweet woman of God and I am grateful there is some way I can assist you,

Megan

Hello Laurie,

We wanted to thank you for a wonderful weekend. Your seminar was outstanding in every way. From the spiritual content, to the performances... it was very uplifting. Simply put.. WOW. Mike

Hi Laurie,

Thank you for much for another amazing seminar-journey! I had so many magical moments this weekend! I apologize for staying somewhat separate from the group but it was what I needed to do. I'm going through some major shifting of perspectives and turbulence at the moment and I have a LOT of stuff on my mind.

Moments after I reached my destination this evening a major healling of a bizarre karmic poo-poo occurred between me and a woman, and I would not have been able to handle it had I not learned the technique you taught in Hawaii- I implemented the four magical phrases and turned the shaking rage I was feeling into pure ecstasy! So thank you for that as well-

I just returned from a walk, listening to the CD I purchased from you, on my fabulously fun iPod.

You are awesome – and delightful. The CD is fun, inspiring and instructive.

I look forward to your Tuesday evening calls.
Friends of mine will be at your Santa Cruz seminar.
Sending you blessings and gratitude
Ann

Dearest Laurie

If I were with you now I'd be in tears! THANK YOU for being so dedicated and so open and so trusting of the message. I never cease to be amazed at what can happen in our lives when we totally surrender to spirit - the gifts we can bring to each other and ourselves. I never dreamt for one moment that a very important part of why I was guided to go to California would be to pass on that simple message to you in order to help you shine your magnificent light even brighter. Your gift to me is just as awesome. Today I swam with the ascended dolphins in Lake Titicaca. Their message of oneness and gifts of healing ruptures in our souls from past lives are so wondrous. When I look at that fabulous, profound picture of Mozart the baby whale, I will always remember to meet life with innocence and wonder - never cynicism or disbelief. I am so excited at the prospect of journeying with him and letting him teach me so much more. And as for Hawaii, well to say I cannot wait is more than an understatement and it will all be because of you and your dedication to honoring the animal kingdom and helping us to remember how to work with them as our guides and teachers. Thank you for the light you bring to the world.
Ankhara

Kaiulani was for me an earth angel, singing to my heart exactly what I needed to hear. Reality wavered as I experienced the whole world as if I was continually creating it. This, of course, is the truth behind the illusion, but it's always delightful to experience it with the rational mind responding with love instead of fear-
You are a blessing to my world, and to everyone else's world as well.
Much love,
Brad

Thank you Laurie! I know this work ripples out as we all find the love inside we change all in our world. Looking forward to the next Satsang call or ezine. Bless you Laurie, Love, Deva and Brad

Hello Dr. Laurie,

It was such a blessing to be in your workshop last weekend at LaCosta! I've been telling everyone I know about your extraordinary way of Being. I deeply felt and feel the open heart energy that you hold so profoundly...and the rapid shifts in consciousness this makes possible.

I purchased the Home Study Kit and am eager to delve into all that is there. I read the 111 Messages to Humanity and began the Intelligent Love book on the flight home to Dallas. I resonate so powerfully with this information.

I understand that at the workshop you were graciously including the Satsang teleconference classes with this Home Study Kit. So I'd very much like to tune in tonight if I can have the link that allows me access to it.

I appreciate you so much!
Love and Blessings,
Janette

Hi Laurie,
I want to thank you again for providing the opportunity for me to share my gifts with your seminar attendees! I feel truly blessed to be able to do so, and to participate in and assist your seminars. I got a tremendous amount of growth and healing from this weekend. Much more than the last one, and I hope this trend continues!
I'm curious to know more about your full vision and beliefs. I get a sense that you know and believe much more than you share with the people at your seminars, that the 2013 question at the end was the tip of your iceberg. I think that I understand quite a bit about you, but I would like to have that getting to know you discussion on the Earth plane too.
Looking forward to Hawaii!!!
Much love,
Brad

You are awesome! Thank you. I am heart broken...wishing to be back with the group in Hawaii where it was all love. Thank you.
Rena

You certainly have a way with words and I get clearer each time I hear you speak..
Allanah

Hi Laurie,
:) you have strong medicine as my native American fore grannies use to say...I asked that you pray in my note to you this morning and a turn of events brought a cat that told my boss a thing or two. :) I thanked the cat and wanted to thank you too

Ho ho
Amber

Bless you Laurie!!!! This is very good news. I adore you and the teachings you present. There was not a moment on the trip that I did not feel love all around me. I was told HI was a huge catalyst for this physical transformation. I trust Spirit and know that this is not for naught... Greater things are on the horizon and I am ready. I asked for it!!!
I am grateful for your generosity and thoughtfulness.

I am very grateful for what you have helped bring to the planet.
I felt you strongly last night while I was sitting enjoying the sunset on the beach. At that time you revealed a very enthusiastic person to me of whom you know I will meet is my guess. Boyfriend I don't know.
Adorable is what he kept saying to me.....changed my meditation I must say. Anyway I hope you had a great new year and trust that this year is going to be amazing for everyone in different ways,
Blessings and love,
Megan
